CITY AWARDS CONTRACTS AGGREGATING $150,000

Street Paving Contracts Given To Low Bidders

North Mercer Street And Delaware Avenue Are Biggest Jobs

SOUTH MILL STREET CONTRACT IS LET

Award On City Hall Heating System Is Held Up For White's Opinion

City council in formal session today at the city building awarded brick paving and repaving contracts amounting to $150,654.65 but delayed action on bids for the proposed installation of a new heating system to be placed in the City Building and Central Fire Department.

Paving contracts for Phillips, South Mercer, Lutton, North Mercer streets and Delaware avenue were awarded to the Victor Olsen Contracting company.

Council awarded a contract for repaving South Mill, between Washington and Water streets to the John B. Thorson company, New Castle.

According to City Engineer Frank Miller the Victor Olsen and John B. Thorson companies presented low bids on brick and council decided to pave and repave the five thoroughfares with brick. Work will start on the improvement as soon as the contracts are approved. The jobs must be completed within three months.

Bids on Contracts

The Olsen company's bids follow:

Phillips, Lutton and South Mercer streets, brick, $13,558.25; North Mercer street, between Lincoln and Sheridan avenues, brick, $59,446.80 and Delaware avenue between Park and Hillcrest avenues, $71,688.85.

Bids for the repaving of South

Cleveland Police Take Up Hunt For Slayer Of Girl

Beautiful Waitress Found Slain In Fine Apartment House

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, May 16.—Detectives here today were scanning a sheaf of 50 passionate love letters, signed "Jack", and addressed to Miss Elizabeth Reegan, 25, beautiful waitress, in their hunt for a clue to the brutal slaying of the girl.

Her body was found on the floor of her suite in an exclusive apartment, with 19 stab wounds in her breast and throat, and a white silk undergarment forced into her mouth as a gag.

The life of the girl was a mystery, detectives declared. She was the divorced wife of a former Cleveland patrolman, and although she worked as a waitress, she possessed an extensive wardrobe of costly clothing, and lived in expensive quarters. She apparently had few men friends, and rarely entertained anyone in her apartment, the detectives learned.

New Castle Police Add $1,000 To Fund For Flood Sufferers

Several checks for the Food Relief fund came in to the Red Cross Headquarters this morning, but there was one check that stands out like a beacon light on night draped shore, a check for $1,000.00, American money which represented 1000 tickets for the Charity Ball and Mardi Gras which is being put on Tuesday night.

The check was received from the general chairman of the event, Mayor William H. Dunlap and represented the work of the policemen of this city. It represented a lot of hard work on the part of the men who pace the beats and to the citizens of Lawrence county it should be an inspiration and spur to greater efforts towards the success of the fund.

Some there may be who have imagined that a "cop" was just an unnecessary evil, a uniformed man who took his salary every month and thought little of the welfare of the city. This is a tangible refutation of such an idea, an evidence that the policemen of the City of New Castle are alive to their responsibilities as citizens, that they expect to bear their share of the

Atlantic Hop Is Again Delayed Due To Weather

American Planes Held Up For At Least 24 Hours Longer

BAD WEATHER MAY LAST SEVERAL DAYS

Young Lindbergh Is Growing Impatient At Delay; May Take Chance

(International News Service)

MINEOLA, N. Y., May 16.—Owing to wind storms over the Atlantic and fog the American aviators who will attempt a non-stop flight from New York to Paris have postponed their hop-off for another 24 hours, it was announced today. According to meteorologists the present bad weather may continue for several days.

Capt. Charles Lindbergh's Ryan monoplane has received its final test and Lindbergh may be the first to get away if the stormy weather moderates sufficiently within the next 24 hours to permit flying over the ocean.

Some Dissension

Dissension arose between the Bellanca flyers—Lloyd Bertaud and Clarence Chamberlin—and Charles A. Levine, the owner of the Bellanca plane, but it has been adjusted. The trouble was due to three points which the airmen brought up:—The necessity for some sort of financial protection for their families, full amount of the $25,000 prize money to go to the aviators instead of being split

Coroner's Jury Returns Verdict In Auto Crash

Inquest Into Death Of George L. Patterson Is Conducted This Morning

OCCUPANTS OF CAR ARE CHIEF WITNESSES

Verdict Declares Mishap Was Accidental; Driver Relates Story

That George L. Patterson came to his death as the result of injuries sustained on May 12, 1927 on the New Castle-New Wilmington road in Neshannock township, while riding in an automobile driven by W. C. Howe and that said death was accidental, Mr. Howe being forced off the road by another car, was the verdict of a jury empaneled by Coroner J. P. Caldwell after hearing the evidence at the office of Alderman L. C. Mantz this morning.

The jury was composed of W. W. Stevenson, R. E. Cage, Harry Householder, Harvey Carpenter, Charles W. Haus and W. J. Graham.

Driver Testifies

W. C. Howe, driver, of the automobile in which Mr. Patterson was killed, told much the same story as given following the accident. He said that George L. Patterson, W. A. McComb of Crafton, Pa., and himself were returning from Sharon where they had gone on the previous afternoon on business. He was driving. Mr. Patterson was sitting in the seat next to him and McComb was in the back seat.

The road was wet. As they were coming down the Steece hill, about one-half mile north of Walmo, Mr. Howe said that he saw another car approaching, and that it was coming near the centre of the road. He thought that it would pull over as it approached him, but it still continued to take more than half the road. Mr. Howe, who estimated that he was driving at about 25 miles per hour, made a sudden turn to the right to avoid hitting the car.

Safe blowers some time Sunday, likely between four and seven o'clock in the afternoon, forced an entrance into the store of the Brown & Hamilton Company on East Washington street, blew open and wrecked the safe of the concern on the mezzanine floor in the rear of the store and made their escape with some $200 belonging to the branch office postoffice located in the store.

The strong box of the safe resisted the methods of the safe blowers and prevented the loss of the Brown & Hamilton Company from running up into many hundreds of dollars.

Hotel Man Gives $100 To Fund For City Expansion

Alex Silverman Of Leslie Hotel Shows Enthusiasm For New Castle

Many evidences of the widespread interest being awakened by the New Castle Chamber of Commerce expansion movement are being seen daily.

Another was added this afternoon when President Fred L. Rentz of the Chamber of Commerce was summoned to the Leslie Hotel to meet Alex Silverman, one of the proprietors and was presented with a check for $100 to be added to the expansion budget.

Mr. Rentz was most appreciative of the interest shown and also was pleased to hear from Silverman his expression of approval of the work of the Chamber of Commerce and his commendation of the expansion movement.

Mr. Silverman along with Mr. Leff, his partner in the hotel here, owners of a chain of hotels, are enthusiastic boosters for New Castle and its development. The hotel already has a number of memberships in the Chamber of Commerce and the check today was an addition to memberships.

Mr. Silverman is also enthusiastic about the future of New Castle he told Mr. Rentz.

New Flood Devastation As Waters Near Gulf; Levees Are Crumbling

By LAWRENCE SULLIVAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BATON ROUGE, La., May 16.—Blanketing new reaches of the world's most productive sugar country at the rate of almost 200 square miles a day, the flood waters of the Mississippi are rolling southward today in the last hundred mile strentch separating them from the Gulf of Mexico.

Six hundred square miles in Avoyelles, St. Landry and Evangeline parishes have been added to the flood ravished area since the Bayou Des Glaises levees crumbled at Cottonport last Thursday, to break the last barrier restraining the flood in its sweep on to the sea.

Today the forty-mile stretch of Des Glaises levees from the Mississippi river westward to Cottonport is lost in the muddy, yellow sea which obliterates some 3,000 square miles of the heart of Louisiana. Here and there along the Bayou dikes a tiny streak of the old protecting wall is visible in the churning waters, but even these honeycombed islands disappear hourly.

River engineers already are basing their calculations upon the premise that within 48 hours the entire levee will have been sunk without trace. One crevasse near the village of Tilden, is ten miles wide. Through this spillway, alone, a 20-foot wall of water rushes into the lowlands behind the west levees of Atchafalaya.

Pay Farewell Tribute Here To Fr. Brennan

Large Crowd At Farewell To Rev. M. J. Brennan Sunday Night

APPRECIATION OF SERVICE SHOWN

Many Addresses Tell Of Worth; Large Check Given By Friends

Approximately 1500 people filled the Penn Theatre to overflowing Sunday evening, May 15, when one of the most unusual meetings held in this city in years took place, the public reception to Rev. M. J. Brennan, assistant pastor of St. Mary's church who has been transferred to the parish of St. Canice, Knoxville, Pittsburgh, Pa., after fifteen years of service here.

It was a reception that must have filled the soul of Rev. Brennan, for from the platform where he sat, he saw before him men and women of all faiths, all creeds, there to demonstrate publicly the esteem and affection which has been in the building these fifteen years.

Maj. G. J. Wadlinger, chairman

Maj. G. J. Wadlinger presided as chairman of the reception and after two numbers by the Penn-Castle orchestra he made a short introductory address. In it he reviewed the work of Rev. Brennan as one of the laity saw it, told his work among the young people here, of his activity in a civic way, and of his influence for good.

Rev. Nevins' poll was made through the mails. It showed the popularity of the "movie sheik" type waning. But while the "ideal husband" must now be temperate and religious, the girls still prefer men of "athletic type" to other physical classes, the poll showed.

Plans Are Complete For Charity Ball

Last minute arrangements are being made today for the Charity Ball and Mardi Gras which will be held Tuesday night in the Scottish Rite Cathedral for the benefit of the Mississippi Valley flood sufferers and from now until 9 o'clock Tuesday night the men and women on the various committees will do little but tie in loose ends.

Just how many tickets have been sold for the affairis an unknown quantity. Few reports have been received although of the few it is known that the police department of the city has sold an unprecedented number of tickets.

Harry Alexander of the Pennsylvania railroad has reported 175 sold to his force and the other salesmen are urged to get in their reports as soon as possible.

Tickets at Door.

It is hoped that the ticket sale at the door on Tuesday night will be a large one. The money is sorely needed and this will be the only definite activity to get funds for Lawrence county's share of the money.

Sunday, May 15, was Flood Relief Day in the churches of the city, but what amount was raised is not known as yet.

Thre contributions were received at Red Cross headquarters today one of them being for $89 from Pulaski, one for $25 from J. F. Perelman and one for $20 from the results of the Ladies Golf tournament at the Field club. The men's tournament turned in $35.

The thing to do now is pack the Scotish Rite Cathedral on Tuesday night. This is the opportunity of contributing to the flood fund and also having an evening of nejoyment. The dance will last from 9 until 2 o'clock with entertainment numbers interspersing the dances. Booths will be installed and one room taken over for indoor sports.

Now I do not mind on a sunny day, to drive for a picnic lunch, I rather enjoy the ants in the bread, and the cracks of a humorous bunch. But I do object in a strenuous way, and let me repeat it again, I do object to a motor trip, in the midst of a drizzling rain. These picnic lunches are quite a joy, when thet air is balmy and warm, but where can you eat in the great outdoors when the weather contiues to storm. I may be wrong, and perhaps I am, when I say twas a goofy trip and maybe the cause of a couple of coughs, and a full case of pip. But they wanted to go, and we went along, on a rain blown storm tossed drive, and we brought the lunch back home with us, the weather is forty-five.

Doubt Reports French Aviators Reached Coast

Belief Becomes Stronger That Fliers Were Forced Down At Sea

(International News Service)

ST. JOHNS, N. F., May 16.—While French vessels scour the Newfoundland coast for traces of Captain Nungesser and Captain Coli, inquiry here leads to doubt as to whether the French fliers ever reached these coasts.

The one fact that tends to the theory that they did is the evidence of five reputable citizens of Harbor Grace that they heard an airplane pass overhead last Monday. This fact, however, is questioned by some because they are of the opinion that if an airplane had passed over there would have been more who would have heard it.

The belief that the French airmen never reach this coast is becoming stronger as search fails to indicate any trace of them, and careful inquiry into many reports shows that most of these reports are based on hearsay.

Man Is Killed, Another Injured In Machine Crash

George McManus ought to have little trouble in naming his elephant that has annexed Father Jiggs, if the number of suggestions reaching The News are any criterion. The answers will be forwarded to Mr. McManus at New York.

New Castle garbage department employes are running the cops a heated race for the sale of tickets for the benefit ball game this week, for the benefit of the flood fund. The garbage collectors are selling tickets all over the city, as they make their rounds.

One can almost imagine a second flood down in the Mississippi if the rainfall of the past few days in this area is anyway near general over the country. New Castle has had sufficient rain in the past few days to last a week or two.

Besides selling tickets for the Red Cross Mississippi Relief fund ball the police are very active in doing a little bit all themselves for the same purpose.

The police team, James Steiner, captain, is to meet the Garbage department team on Friday for the benefit of the fund. There are two thousand tickets out and are going like hot cakes, the officers report.

Officer Clarence Campbell is the star performer up to date. He has disposed of 400 tickets. Some of the officers promise to give him a chase for the honors and it is possible that more tickets will have to be printed.

Automobile owners parking too near street intersections will find that the parking fines for that violation have been materially increased when they meet up with Day Sergeant Frank M. Jones. The rates tor this type of violation has been raised to $3. Bronco Pansgro and Paul Laurell found this out over the week end when ordered in by Officer Faella.

Members of the night and day turns of the city police department have drawn their regular two week vacations and as soon as some adjustments have been made suit their convenience and desire along vacation lines the vacations drawn will be known. The officers will start on their vacations the forst of June and they will continue until the last of October before all have had their turn.

BELIEVE ROBBERS WORKED IN STORE DURING AFTERNOON

pers of value to the Brown & Hamilton Company were destroyed or mutilated by the two charges of nitroglycerine used in the effort to secure the money contained in the safe.

Leave Some Tools

Hammers and various tools used by safe blowers, a nitroglycerine bottle and cap and other paraphernalia used by the modern safe cracker were found scattered about the place. This is the only clue as yet available to the police authorities, who are making a thorough investigation in an effort to apprehend the safe blowers.

It is positive, according to police authorities and the owners, that the safe was blown some time between 8:30 a. m. Sunday, when Ira A. Reed, the night watchman, left for home, and seven o'clock last night, when he returned to duty and found that the front door on Washington street had been jimmied open. It is thought that the entrance was forced and the efforts to get the money in the safe occurred between four and seven o'clock in the afternoon, as some of the liquid used and with which the safe and floor were saturated, was still damp when the discovery was made.

The police as yet have been unable to find any person who heard the explosions or may have seen someone at the front door of the store.

Notifies Owners

Immediately on seeing the situation on entering the store, Mr. Reed notified O. P. Brown and David Long, owners and managers of the store. They were on the scene in a few minutes and the police were called.

Lieutenant of Police U. G. Harper and Officers John Moore, M. J. Young, C. C. Horner and Clarence Samuels answered the call and found the part of the office in which the safe is located a mass of debris. Parts of the safe, hundreds of stamps, receipts, glass from broken glass partitions and other materials were scattered about the place. Detective C. G. Logan is continuing the investigation today.

It was seen that the safe blowing had been the work of experts. They had used electric connections with the wiring of the store in exploding their charges of nitroglycerine.

The safe had three doors. The first, or outer door, is that closed with the combination. The combination had been knocked off with a hammer. A charge of nitroglycerine had then been placed in the hole where the combination had been, the electric connection made and the charge exploded, throwing upen the outer doors.

Strong Box Foils

In some manner the thinner inner main door, which is locked with a key, was forced open. Then the safe crackers came on the strong box of this safe, which is locked with a combination. This resisted a charge of nitroglycerine and all other efforts to force an entrance. The combination is of such a type that the repeated blasts of the explosive only served to knock the tumblers down and more securely lock the compartment, saving the money of the Brown & Hamilton Company.

This made it necessary for the company to secure the services of an expert in opening safes, and Jesse E. Pankratz has been engaged to open the strong box compartment. After preliminary work this morning he found that it would be necessary to use an acetylene torch this afternoon in order to open it.

The branch postoffice money, amounting to approximately $200, and many hundreds of stamps; also money orders, were in a metal box in the main part of the safe, with receipts and valuable books and papers of the Brown & Hamilton Company. The box and its contents were evidently blown up in one of the efforts to force an entrance into the sae, as was evidenced by the stamps lying all over the place. Only the money was taken, it was found on a check-up this morning by Acting Postmaster E. W. Crawford. No money orders or stamps were found missing. There was also no goods missing from the store.

Entrance was effected by jimmying the east front door of the store, evidently with a heavy bar. This was the only possible way of getting in, as the lock is on the inside and there is no keyhole. The bolts were forced at the top and bottom of the door, permitting the doors to open in.

The Bellanca monoplane was taken from its hangar on Roosevelt Flying field at 4 a. m. today, leading to reports that Bertaub and Chamberlin were planning to hop off immediately, but officials of the Columbia Aircraft Corporation denied these reports.

There was considerable activity on both Roosevelt and Curtiss flying fields.

Capt. Lindbergh's monoplane was wheeled from its hangar about the same time as the Bellanca monoplane.

The weather was misty over Long Island.

Young Lindbergh, as usual, was up shortly after daybreak. It was reported that he was getting impatient and was thinking of taking a chance against the reported storms over the Atlantic, but this was denied, also.

People are satisfied if a prize fight ends in five seconds. But think of the howl if a lecturer should condense his remarks into the word "Blah."

Deaths Of The Day

Mrs. Sara M. Blackwood.

Mrs. Sara M. Blackwood, aged 82, widow of Dr. Thomas J. Blackwood, one of the most widely known and beloved women of the city, died Saturday evening at eight o'clock at her home, 449 East Washington street, after an illness.

Although born in Butler county, January 31, 1845, the daughter of James and Mary Douthitt Mageet, she had been a resident of this city and Lawrence county for more than half a century.

She was deeply interested in all religious matters and had been a member of the Reformed Presbyterian congregation of this city for sixty years. She was especially interested in the missionary enterprises of her own denomination, being a charter member of the Woman's Missionary Society of her own congregation and one of the organizers of the Woman's Presbyterial Society of the Pittsburgh Presbytery.

Mrs. Blackwood was also active in Christian work in the city and county, being a member of the auxiliary board of the Y. M. C. A. at its organization and one of the prime movers of the county in establishing Almira Home and a member of the board of that institution for many years.

She was also an officer of the Lawrence County W. C. T. U. for many years and an active member of the Frances Willard Memorial Union. She was a warm hearted loyal friend and loved by all who knew her and most by those who knew her best. Her self sacrificing labors blessed and comforted many lives.

She leaves the following children, Mrs. Jamina C. Foster, Mrs. H. D. Hanna and Dr. James M. Blackwood, all of this city, also two grandchildren, Arthur B. Foster of New Castle and Thomas Armstrong of Pittsburgh and two great grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Nettie J. Carpenter of New Castle and a brother, J. D. Magee, of Valencia, Pa.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday, May 17, 1927 at 3 p. m. Daylight Savings Time, from the family residence 449 East Washington street, with her pastor, Dr. E. A. Crooks in charge. Interment will be made in Oak Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Charles K. Kuhn

Mrs. Julia French Kuhn, aged 61, wife of Charles K. Kuhn, of Harbor Bridge, died Saturday evening about seven o'clock at the New Castle hospital. Mrs. Kuhn was born in Lawrence county and had been a resident of the city and county all her life. Mrs. Kuhn was born April 18, 1866, the daughter of James French and Rebecca Boston French. She was a member of King's Chapel Methodist Episcopal church. She leaves her husband, one brother, James C. French of Harbor Bridge; one sister, Mrs. H. W. Miller of Philadelphia, and her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Boston French, also of Philadelphia. Funeral services will be held Tuesday, May 17, 1927, at four p. m., daylight saving time, at the residence of Miss Minnie R. Kuhn of the Harbor Bridge. Burial will be made in Oak Park cemetery.

Mrs. Maria Justice Book.

Mrs. Maria Justice Book, widow of the late Admiral Book, passed away Sunday, May 15 at 3 a. m. after a short illness, at her home 111 North Jefferson street.

Mrs. Book was a daughter of the late Webster and Martha M. Justice, pioneer citizens of New Castle.

She is survived by three brothers, J. R. and W. C. Justice of this city and L. T. Justice of Philadelphia and two sisters, Ella V. Justice and Katherine Justice Miller, and one nephew, James J. McMillen of this city.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday, May 18 at 2:30 p. m. from her late residence. Interment in Oak Park cemetery.

John D. Wilson.

John D. Wilson, aged 84 years, died at the home of his nephew, Harlan J. Wilson of North Beaver township, Sunday morning at 9:30 as the result of a stroke which he suffered a few days previous.

Mr. Wilson was born September 22, 1842. He spent most of his life in Slippery Rock township where he was a well known and prosperous farmer. He was a member of the Oak Grove United Presbyterian church and was a member of the session of that church for thirty-five years.

He leaves two brothers, Robert H. and James Wilson of North Beaver township. His wife preceded him in death 14 years.

Short funeral services will be held from the home of his nephew on Tuesday, May 17, at 1:30 Eastern Standard Time. Later services will be held in the Center U. P. church at 2:30 p. m. Eastern Standard Time. Rev. C. G. Kenneweg of the Oak Grove U. P. church will officiate. Burial will be made in Center cemetery.

Mrs. Lillian McConnell.

Mrs. Lillian May McConnell, aged 50 years, wife of Frank McConnell of New Wilmington, died Sunday morning, April 15, at 4 o'clock, in the Buhl hospital in Sharon.

Mrs. McConnell's death was the result of an operation which she underwent about a week ago.

She was born in New Wilmington, a daughter of Joseph W., and Sarah Jane Black Dicks, who survive her, and had lived all her life in that place. She was a member of the Neshannock Presbyterian church, at New Wilmington.

Besides her husband to whom she was married 25 years ago on March 26, 1927, and her parents, Mrs. McConnell leaves two sisters, Mrs. Anna E. Clark, and Mrs. Guy Neal, both of New Wilmington, and two brothers, Charles L. Dicks of Sharon, and S. M. Dicks of New Wilmington.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday, May 17, at 2:30 from her late home in New Wilmington, with her pastor, Rev. Bucher, officiating. Interment will be made in Neshannock cemetery.

Mrs. Faust Buried.

Funeral services for Mrs. Wilhelmina Faust, widow of William Faust took place Saturday afternoon at 2:30 from her late residence on Rebecca street. Rev. A. M. Stump, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church was in charge. The pallbearers were George and Martin Shuller, Joseph and Andrew Eve, Andy Bodendorfer and George Samuels. Interment was made in Graceland cemetery.

Miss Jennie Patton

Miss Jennie Patton of Pittsburgh, daughter of the late Andrew and Sarah Campbell Patton, former well known residents of this city, died this morning at the home of her brother, Frank B. Patton, Solway street, Pittsburgh, after an illness. She leaves a number of cousins in this district, Ralph M. Campbell, Joseph Campbell and Mrs. Lizzie Vandergrift Campbell of this city and William E. Patton of Hickory township. Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock daylight saving time from the residence of her brother on Solway street.

Mrs. Johnson Funeral.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Margaret May Johnson, wife of Harry Johnson of East Washington street, took place this afternoon at 2:30 from the Third United Presbyterian church with the pastor, Rev. S. B. Copeland officiating. Mrs. W. A. Hanna and Mrs. Ed. O'Neil sang during the services accompanied by Mrs. John O'Neil. The pall bearers were J. M. Marshall, W. Alexander, W. Brinton, H. K. Bell, C. M. Caskey and F. Hill. Interment was made in Oak Park cemetery.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Johnson leaves one son, Harry Johnson, Jr., and three daughters, Mrs. Rudolph Shuler, Mrs. John O'Neil and Mrs. Clare Kennedy.

and spoke in glowing terms of the work of Rev. Brennan here. He said that Rev. Brennan had gone far in the breaking down of the false barriers which had existed between people of different faiths, and hoped that his successor would carry on the work as efficiently.

Very Rev. F. F. O'Shea, L. L. D., pastor of St. Mary's church had for his subject "My Co-Laborer" and complimented Rev. Brennan upon the work he had done as assistant in this parish. While he regrets the removal of his assistant here, he rejoices in his promotion.

Samuel Lewis, tenor of the First M. E. church delighted the crowd with two numbers and in response to an encore request sang "Mother Machree." He was accompanied by Edwin Lewis.

Attorney Thomas W. Dickey reviewed his acquaintanceship with Rev. Brennan, running back to the days when Mr. Dickey was District Attorney and continuing down to the present. He spoke most highly of Rev. Brennan's work as a priest, as a citizen, and as a civic worker.

Cathedral Quartet

The Scottish Rite Cathedral Quartet was next on the program with two numbers, "Holy Art Thou" and "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears." The quartette is composed of Messrs. Albert Genkinger, Harry C. Urmson, Browne K. Thacker and J. Russel Urmson. Edwin Lewis acted as accompanist.

Representative Bart Richards followed the quartette and paid a personal tribute to Rev. Brennan and a friendship which has existed for nearly all of the years he has been here.

Then followed the part of such a program which is always difficult, a presentation. Rev. F. S. Clifford General Chairman of the reception, who organized it in a few short days and saw it result in a remarkable gathering, presented Rev. Brennan with a check, the gift of his friends here. Another gift was a wrist watch from the class of 1920.

Rev. Brennan responded with an address of appreciation. He was very evidently laboring under the emotion of the hour and while he expressed his appreciation for what had been done for him, the repressed feeling spoke more than his words. The orchestra closed the program.

It was a meeting that will not soon be forgotten in New Castle. It was an outpouring of public sentiment for a man whose labors here have brought the reward that only unselfishness can bring, the love and affection and esteem of the citizens of the city he has served.

Many visiting priests were on the platform. One of them Rev. Dudley Nee comes to this city from Monessen, Pa., to replace Rev. M. J. Brennan. Other priests present were:

Rev. John F. Enright, St. Bede's church, Pittsburgh; Rev. P. E. Maher, St. Francis Xavier church, Pittsburgh; Rev. Paul A. Campbell, Superintendent Schools Pittsburgh; Rev. Joseph C. Fitzpatrick, St. Canice church, Pittsburgh; Rev. M. J. McBurney, St. Joseph's church Natrona; Rev. J. Marinaro, St. Michael's church, Butler; Rev. James L. Stewart, St. Paul's church, Butler; Rev. Regis Krab, O. M. Cap., St. Fidelis College, Herman; Rev. Bertrand Brockman, O. M. Cap., St. Fidelis College, Herman; Rev. R. F. Wilkey, St. Agatha's church, Ellwood City.

Rev. P. J. McKenna, St. Margaret's church, Mahoningtown, New Castle; Rev. N. DeMita, St. Vitus' church, New Castle.

scene of the blaze. It was necessary to carry the line across Washington street, blocking traffic for some time. Several hundred autos were lined along the street as a result, one of the worst traffic jams of years being seen.

Owing to the nature of the structure it was some time before the flames had been subdued, the firemen being on the job until after midnight. Owing to the fact that the concession was some distance from the other concessions none of these were damaged, firemen waging a successful battle against the spread of the blaze.

DINNER STORIES
A Professional Attitude

He came home late for supper. He was professor of chemistry and she was a wife who tried to have a good supper for him every night. When he'd be late her good cooking would be spoiled and then he'd start to find fault. He was late again tonight. The supper was cold. The argument was on. But wife finally broke down crying. But he was a professor of chemistry.

"Stop crying! Your tears have no effect on me. What are they? A small percentage of phosphorus salts, a little sodium chloride. All the rest — water, Bah!"

Crushed!

"I'm very pleased, Mrs. Robinson," said the minister, "to see you so regular in your place on the Sabbath Day."

"'Deed, sir," replied the good lady, "I'm glad to come, for it's not every day I get sic a comfortable seat and sae little tae think aboot."

Women's Modern Hygiene

More absorbent—Discards like tissue

By ELLEN J. BUCKLAND
Registered Nurse

FEW women today cling to the old-time "sanitary pad"—risky and uncertain—because of a new way called KOTEX.

✓ It ends the embarrassment of laundry and disposal. You discard Kotex as easily as tissue.

Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads. Thus you wear sheer gowns and gay frocks under the most trying conditions.

Also deodorizes, and thus ends all fear of offending. 80% better class women now use it. Doctors widely urge it. Most hospitals employ it.

Costs only a few cents for a package of 12 at any drug or department store. Be sure you get the genuine KOTEX, for only Kotex itself is "like" Kotex.

Helps Others Who Suffer

Philadelphia Man Relieved Of Acid Stomach, Gastritis and Nervousness Wants Everyone to Hear How Tanlac Helped Him.

"Tanlac is a wonderful remedy," says Diodato Bassano, 1205 South Alder Street, Philadelphia. "For a year I suffered terribly from indigestion. At times the pain would nearly double me up. My appetite was poor and when I did eat, gas and acid formed in my stomach.

"Nervousness upset me so that I could not get a good night's sleep. Now the days of suffering are only a hideous dream. I feel better than ever before. My stomach never bothers me. I eat everything, too. I give Tanlac all the credit for my recovery."

This tonic, made from roots, barks and herbs, usually builds up weak bodies, relieves suffering, tones up the system. For better health take Tanlac. All druggists. 40 million bottles sold.

Central Union.

Central W. C. T. U. met Friday evening May 13 in the Y. W. C. A. parlors with the president Mrs. Martha Ketler presiding.

Mrs. Jennie Forquer, Secretary of Evangelism had charge of devotionals. It was asked that each member as far as possible pay $1 towards the state building at Harrisburg for the state headquarters. The Central women decided to join the Y. P. B. in holding a rumage sale in the near future.

At this meeting Mother's Night was observed, led by Mrs. J. K. Hess, director of the mothers' department. Mrs. Marta Ketler gave a splendid address which was very much appreciated. Mrs. Hess gave a talk on the present conditions, her subject being "Disinterested Mothers and Neglected Girls." The book entitled "Father Penn and John Barleycorn" was ordered placed in the public library.

Two visitors were present from the Scotland Union, Mrs. John Wimer and Mrs. Lieby.

The report given was as follows:

Posters, 85; magazines, 1,012; pages of literature, 9,472; potted plants, 2; garments, 77; sick calls, 52; cans of fruit, 2; cans of vegetables, 4; glasses of jelly, 12; books to the library, 46; public meetings, 3; jail metings, 5; gospel message, 1; St. John's Gospel 20; one letter to Governor Fisher; 12 dozen eggs given to the Almira Home by the Teen-age department of the First M. E. church reported by Mrs. J. K. Hess. Money expended $129.

West Side W. C. T. U.

West Side W. C. T. U. had a very pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Fisher, Friday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Long, conducted the devotional period. Readings were given by Mrs. Kenneth Staley on the work of the W. C. T. U. in Bermuda.

Extracts from the sayings of great people on the "Effects of Prohibition in Our Land," were given by Mrs. Long. Mrs. Rote spoke on "Four Big Unions." A social meeting was planned to be held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Taylor, 502 West Cherry street on June 3. A number of dues were received and two dollars for flower money.

The following reports were given. 12 bouquets, 1 casket bouquet, 25 visits to the sick, 35 cards sent, 250 papers and magazines given, 200 tracts, 12 garments.

One Is Killed, Five Injured As Mine Cage Drops

(International News Service)

SCRANTON, Pa., May 16.—One man was killed and several others probably fatally hurt when a cage in the Johnson Coal mine at Dickson City dropped early today, according to word received here.

Five of the injured mine workers were rushed to the Moses Taylor hospital here and attaches were requested to make preparations for five others.

LANDING FIELD HERE

SINCE the abandonment of the city poor farm, as a result of the operation of the new city-county home, there have been many suggestions to the city as to use to be made of the site.

Among these, and one that has been given most consideration, is the project of making part of the old farm an aeroplane landing field. Nothing definite has been done however. It appears that it will be necessary to have a survey made to determine if the site is available for such purposes.

From our viewpoint it would appear that the thing to do is to have the farm looked over at once by some one competent to determine if a landing site can be made, and if so, carry out the project. It is certain that more and more the aeroplane is going to figure in city progress of the future, and the quicker a landing field is made available in New Castle, the quicker will benefit accrue to the city.

If the old poor farm is not adaptable for a landing field, maybe it would be possible to trade the site for one that is more adaptable at some other location near the city.

GET RID OF THE GRAVEYARD TAX

PENNSYLVANIA'S inheritance tax law is particularly outrageous. No estate, no matter how insignificant, is immune. A bill passed the late legislature which exempted up to $1000 inheritance to direct heirs. It was a poor, miserable little thing—a mere sop. Nevertheless, the governor vetoed it because it reduced revenue without providing a new method of supply. The tax commission had recommended a $5000 exemption.

It is rather singular that the commission, which has made all sorts of suggestions for a revised tax system, clings tenaciously to inheritances as one source of income. Yet it is the meanest, most contemptible and least excusable of all levies declares the Philadelphia Inquirer. To their credit, Florida, Alabama and Nevada refuse to go into the hearse-chasing business. Pennsylvania ought to join them.

The first step in getting rid of the obnoxious tax is to induce congress to repeal the federal raid on estates. In Connecticut the legislature has petitioned congress to do that very thing. A committee has been appointed there to foster a national movement. If there are to be inheritance taxes at all they should be reserved exclusively for the states. They have been resorted to temporarily at Washington for emergency purposes. They were exacted during the war period and have not been abolished. Instead a direct effort has been made to induce states to increase their own rates. This is done by an enactment which credits to a commonwealth the amount of inheritance taxes actually collected by it up to eighty per cent of the federal imposition. This is a club swung over the heads of the states not taxing inheritances and a sort of bribe offered the others to demand even more from the graveyards.

It is a wretched piece of work that congress is engaged in. The coming session should put an end to it. So far as the United States government is concerned, every form of inheritance tax should be wiped out, thereby leaving the states absolutely free to legislate as they see fit. All honor to Florida, Alabama and Nevada, which have declined to go out and rob widows and children! All shame to Pennsylvania, which demands its tribute from every dollar or dollar's worth of property left in a will!

Anyway, the old-fashioned town loafer was honest about it; he didn't claim to be in conference.

CHARLES B. DRISCOLL

PERILS BY FLOOD

Unless you have been in a flood, you can hardly imagine the horror of such a disaster. It has a peculiarly terrifying quality, all its own. War, fire, tornado, explosion and disaster at sea have their own terrors too. But there is a feeling of utter loneliness with flood disasters, in my mind.

My father's farm was situated in a bend of the Arkansas river, in south central Kansas. It was rich farming land because it was alluvial soil, brought down by the river through ages of floods. But one of the items in the price a farmer has to pay for such soil is the danger that the floods may come again. And they did come, again and again, during my boyhood on that valley farm.

The farmers in Colorado put dams across the upper reaches of the Arkansas river, so as to have water for irrigating their sugar beets and cantaloupes. Thus the flow of the river in normal times was reduced to a mere trickle. The sand carried down from the mountains was dropped by the shallow stream as it lazily crawled across the hot plains of Kansas. Result, a riverbed from five to twenty feet higher than the adjacent farms.

Then the floods came. The first one that I remember resulted from the bursting of a dam in Colorado. It overflowed our farm and neighboring lands, cut us off from communication with neighbors for a few days, and subsided. The next flood was more serious. The third was disasterous. The fourth and fifth were calamities.

Through the long day the marooned farmer and his family, if they are so fortunate as to have a house on a hill, above the flood water, watch the resistless torrent, which seems to be without beginning and without end. The water is rising, or it is falling, or it is rising again. That's about all the news there is. Day succeeds day, and still the vast expanse of water rolls on.

There is a peculiar odor in the air when farms are flooded. It is the odor of rapidly moving water that is foul with uprooted vegetation. Not an odor that is disagreeable in itself, but it is sickening to anyone who has endured the horhors of marooning by overflowing rivers.

I will never forget the terror of awakening at night and hearing the turbulent roaring of the flood water. Perhaps it was no higher than it had been when we retired, but in the silent night it sounded indescribably fearful. Often I arose and went to the water's edge to examine the gauge, because the menacing of the roaring flood was so violent as to dispel all thought of sleep.

And the worst of the flood comes when the receding water lays bare the ruined farms. Flood sufferers are indeed deserving of sympathy.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 7:11. Sun rises tomorrow 4:42.

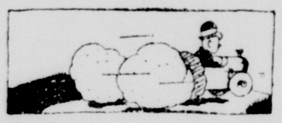
Don't forget that you cannot get nice people to do nasty jobs. Nice people don't do those things and when alleged nice people do nasty things society in general suffers.

Tickets for the great Charity Ball to be given for the benefit of the Mississippi Flood Sufferers can be had at The News office. They are One Dollar each. You can get as many as you want here.

A Massachusetts man gave as an excuse for beating his wife that he gets upset at every full moon and cannot restrain himself from handling his better half a few lusty clouts. He will not see the next six full moons as the moons do not shine in the jail houses.

A New Castle doctor seemed all in and a friend asked his wife just what ailed the medical gentlemen. His wife replied, "He is suffering from Mrs. Brown's rheumatism, Mr. Smith's chronic dyspepsia, Miss Green's nervous depression and Miss Jones' weak heart.

At a swimming exposition to be held in Canada this fall those entering the contest will not be allowed to wear coats of grease but must wear regular bathing suits. Canada is getting mighty particular.



In the old days we passed the fellow up ahead to avoid his dust. Now we do it to prove we can.

People sentenced to the electric chair on Friday, the 13th, can well consider that day unlucky for them. Their victims never have half the chance they get at that. It seems an appropriate day for such an event.

Tickets for the great Charity Ball to be given for the benefit of the Mississippi Flood Sufferers can be had at The News office. They are One Dollar each. You can get as many as you want here.

One who claims to know says death in the electric chair is an easy one. We think he is a liar and the truth is not in him. We are not taking his word for it anyhow.

Hash is quoted as an "Economical food." We have heard it called far worse than that. Fish hash, however, is the worst of them all. And its economical with a big E.

Then you have the fellow who agrees to everybody and puts his name on the dotted line and then never pays a cent. He might at least save the trouble of agreeing.

We have noticed in campaigns that are conducted for the good of our city and for the advancement of the interests of the people that very few enthusiastic politicians every take part in these activities. This may be because there is nothing in it for them and that they may be asked to give a bit towards the venture. We could compile a very interesting list of names made up of these bimbos in this city—and we don't give a tinker's tink what they think of us.

Generally speaking a man is as old as he professes; a woman is as old as she feels like admitting.

We have planted a peck of potatoes. We expect to get several bushels of spuds from this venture. We will make a report on results later on. No doubt many vulgar bugs will attack the crop, but we will chase them.

Mayor Dunlap and his police have done a wonderful piece of work in suppressing the double parking on busy down town streets. This should not be allowed and the good citizens are grateful to Mayor Dunlap for his activity along these lines.

The New Castle Chamber of Commerce will hold an election for directors soon and those directors will elect officers later. If you are a member of the chamber you will have a vote and you can make any corrections you think should be made. The members do the voting and the regulating.

A New York stenographic lady had turned down a dancing offer on the stage and has gone back to her typewriter. She says life on the stage is too uncertain. We will have to admit on our own account that many actors really live longer than they should be allowed to live.

At a banquet of fat men in Italy talking was not allowed for fear it would interfere with the eating. We have known of banquets in this country where the eating interfered with the talking—and hearing.

We often hear and read about some affair where the day was saved by coller heads being present. We think lots of that stuff can also be attributed to the present of cold feet.

It is not what some people do it's the nasty mean way they do it that makes it really bad.

It was our extreme pleasure to have a short visit and chat with Ex-Mayor Barnes, who lives on Cedar street, this city. Mayor Barnes had to retire from office on account of severe illness and has been an invalid ever since. We were glad to see our old friend and hear his voice once more. He was sitting out on the front porch of his home and is enjoying fairly good health.

WORTH WHILE

Live while you're living,
Long you'll be dead.
Give while you're giving
Kindness and bread.
Ring while you're ringing
Bells true and right.
Sing while you're singing
Songs that delight.
Though you, in sorrow,
No joy can see;
Don't rob tomorrow
Of what may be.
Grope while you're groping
For treasure trove.
Hope while you're hoping
For peace and love.

Dream while you're dreaming
Of ideal things;
Often just seeming
Achievement brings.
Go while you're going
Where birds are gay.
Show while you're showing
The better way.
Don't join the masses
Down the decline;
Lead up the passes
To heights divine.
Seek while you're seeking
Friends who can smile.
Speak while you're speaking
Something worth while.

A crap shooter down in Texas died suddenly after he has thrown seven eight times consecutively. It was practically a case of suicide, but the police are holding the man who used the gun.

It is said that there will be only two liquor licenses issued for Canadian Niagara Falls. It's probably going to be pretty hard for a Canadian to get a drink in his own saloon this summer.

Must Have Ability.

Recipients of the scholarships must be of demonstrated ability, merit and good character and must have evidenced leadership in primary school activities.

An old saying is that truth is found at the bottom of a well, but it is seldom found at the bottom of a golf course.

The recent unsuccessful flights across the Atlantic has kind of put a damper on other enthusiasts who wanted to fly over the big pond. Well, summer is almost here and some of the channel swimmers can try paddling across.

The man who weds the recipient of a prize at a beauty show should be the most fortunate beauty prize winner, but recent marriages prove that it isn't so.

It is highly probable that jazz orchestras have cured more rheumatism than medicine.

As men grow older their faults become more and more pronounced. The greatest danger is that a man who is thrifty and self-centered when young will become a miser and grouch when he is old.

Lord Derby has invited Senator Borah to go over and learn something about England. Me Lord doesn't understand Borah at all. If Borah goes over it will be to teach the English something about England.

Announcement has been made that the liquor business in Ontario province is to be conducted without profit. We are sure that is right in the case of the poor dupes who buy and drink the stuff they hand out.

Thirteen possible verdicts were cited by Justice Scudder to the jury in the Snyder case. The fact that the prisoners drew the most unlucky one may have some significance to superstitious folks.

The reason a man has been happy for 50 years is because of his wife.

We can't for the life of us understand why one article of feminine attire should be called "scanties" when the whole dogone make-up is scanty itself.

Women of 30 to 40 are said to be the most dangerous says a noted woman student of feminine gender. The woman of tihs age with her maturity, common sense and beauty can outstrip the flappers of the youthful age so we are informed. But we have come to the conclusion after careful reflection on events of the past few months in which women were involved that at any age they are dangerous animals to play with. Our advice is to stay away from them and live long and happily.

April was a wet month and May so far hasn't been so darn constitutional either.

The Saddest Victim.
The Smooth Apple.
Earthquakes.
All Prisoners.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1927, By N. Y. American, Inc.

"I, the Lord thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me."

The saddest victim in the Snyder murder and tragedy is not the dead man in his grave, with marks of the wire on his neck and a break in his skull where the sash weight struck. The picture shows the real victim, the poor little girl that must go through life, shuddering and turning away her eyes from pointing fingers, the poor child without sin, that must suffer for the sins of her mother, for whom she still feels deep love and devotion, the miserable mother whose heart must be broken by the disgrace that she has brought upon her child.

How cold and imperfect is justice, how powerless to strike without wounding the innocent, how deadly and paralyzing the blows that it deals to the reputation, happiness and love of the innocent.

(But so it must be. The sins of the fathers (and mothers) are visited upon the children and the sins of the children upon the parents.)

In England an important experiment in vivisection was necessary, but could not be performed under anesthetics. Young J. B. S. Haldane, distinguished physiologist, nephew of Lord Haldane, son of Prof. John Scott Haldane, of Oxford, wellknown here, said, "You cannot use a dog. The knowledge to be gained is important. Use ME." They did so, producing artificial acidosis in his blood, then using it to make experiments.

That is the real scientific spirit, but it is not new. His father opened an artery, after breathing carbonic acid gas, to show students the effect on the blood. And the late Dr. Brown-Sequard broke one of his finger bones in a small vise, then calmly lectured to his students on the knitting of the bone as he put on splints.

Once upon a time in big cities you would see four different beer saloons, and the owners made their profit selling whisky. Brewers competing with each other financed whisky selling and thus brought prohibition upon their industry.

When prohibition came in the saloon went out, APPARENTLY. But Lieutenant McVeigh of New York's police informs you that on six blocks of Fulton st., between the ferry and Orange st., are 100 "speak-easies," about seventeen to the block.

The whisky is poisonous. The beer drunk under prohibition is "NEEDLED," dosed with bad alcohol with a huge syringe, something like a hyperdomic needle, that pierces the bunghole.

In great cities there are four times as many "speak-easies" as there ever were public saloons.

The bootleg industry has financed the underworld, making of crime one of the great "industries" of the United States.

Prohibition cannot be called a success YET.

Miss Bloom says "Mrs. Coolidge is worth $1,000,000 a year to the Republican party," and that is an underestimate. Mrs. Coolidge is worth to her husband's party more money than the combined fortunes of Ford and Rockefeller. There is a limit to the purchasing power of money.

There is no limit to the value of a good example.

An American in a floating balloon beat all "altitude" records, going more than eight miles above the earth.

A deep hole has just been found in the Pacific ocean, more than six miles deep, greatest depth ever discovered, and men, little earth microbes exclaim, "How high, how deep."

Take in your hand a smooth apple. In proportion to size, the earth is more nearly round than the apple, and germs on its surface could find on it mountains higher than Mount Everest; chasms more fearful that the Grand Canyon. A hole six miles deep is equal in depth to less than one-thousandth part of earth's diameter.

Moscow has announced the discovery of an elephant skull 1,000,000 years old.

When that elephant was young, reaching up for food, with a trunk that represented evolution lasting through hundreds of millions of years, primitive men were already here, watching, from hiding places, with rough flints fastened to clubs, wishing they could kill him.

There were earthquakes then and now, far worse probably, since earth has since then had another million years to settle down. The elephant hunters wondered what giant or angry god caused them, if their minds had then reached the wondering stage.

We have only recently learned that God does not throw thunderbolts at us, or shake us out of our beds, after creating us, weak and superstitious, as we are.

The earth and its little two-legged rulers are still young.

An old man set free, last week, after spending fifty-three years in prison, he had lived past 100, which shows the advantage of a regular life. Death was the kind jailer that released him.

Hasty readers remarked: "How strange to be in prison fifty-three years, how could he stand it?"

We are all in prison, all our lives, in a jail called the earth, knowing nothing about what goes on in the real world outside of the 500-mile thick wall of atmosphere, and when we go, the jailer, death, releases us.

We think we are free, because our prison is bigger than Joliet, Sing Sing or the federal prison at Atlanta.

THE BEST MONUMENT

Gabriele D'Annunzio, Italy's soldier poet, came out of his self-imposed exile at Lake Garda the other day and announced that he would attend the ceremony in honor of St. Francis and plant trees for the reforestation of Mount Subasio.

He said that the tree was a better memorial to the saint than the erection of a monument.

Man has been a monument building animal. He differs from the other animals in putting up memorials over the grave of his kind.

There have been many splendid monuments in the past, such as the tomb of Hadrian, the Pyramids and the Taj Mahal.

It is doubtful, however, if anything in the way of a memorial could be set up so appropriate as a tree, for the tree is man's best friend and the tree is a living thing.

By its annual regeneration it illustrates the hope of man's immortality, by its shade or its fruits it gives of its substance to man's welfare.

It is especially fitting in the case of Saint Francis that a tree should be selected, for Saint Francis was a great lover of nature. He called the birds and the animals of the forest his friends and even composed a poem to his brother the Sun.

How he must have loved the trees and have been grateful for their protecting life.

Man has been slowly coming to the conclusion that he must conserve the forests as well as exploit them. They temper the climate, they modify the effects of the rain fall and from their wood many implements and the dwellings of man are constructed.

It would be most in keeping with the order of things that those who are seeking for a memorial to their dead should plant a tree.

Among the ancient Germans each man's life was supposed to be bound up with some tree, and when he was dead his coffin was made from that tree.

We may not be descended from tree inhabiting animals, as it has been held, but it is certain that deep in the heart of mankind is implanted a love for trees, and the waving tree will be his best memorial.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

AFTER THE OPERATION

I've had my tonsils out, an' I
Got flowers to put beside my bed,
An' everything that folks can buy,
Just like my daddy said.

"You sleep a little while," said he,
"Then open up your eyes,
An' maybe by your bed you'll see
A wonderful surprise."

An' all day long surprises came,
An' all the next day, too;
My nurse said: "Well, it seems a shame
That nobody loves you!"

An' everyone who came to see
How I was gettin' on
Would stand and say: "Good gracious me!
What's this I look upon?

"Is this our little Janet's room,
Or can it be a store?
I think so many flowers in bloom
I've never seen before."

I've had my tonsils out, an' I
Got lots of games to play;
An' just because I didn't cry
It seemed like Christmas day.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

A MYSTERIOUS DEMAND.

Ginger ale is not much of a drink, yet the American people are drinking a tremendous lot of ginger ale. Doubtless there are some prohibitionists who think that much of this consumption is occasioned by the mixing with the ginger ale a certain content not lawfully permitted to be in general circulation. In the old anti-Volstead days, the local bottling works sold to the saloons, and to private individuals their bottled non alcoholic drinks. There was then no question about the source of the principal demand for these bottled goods.

There was a time I could remember in Pennsylvania when a bottling works was looked upon by the prohibitionists as belonging to the same category as the saloon. At no time, however, up until post Volstead days, was there in existence any great bottling works selling their wares all over the United States. There were the mineral waters of Europe that were bottled, and there were the waters from Apollonari Spring that were bottled, and sold, but on no extensive scale. Recently there appeared on the Ticker Tape recording sales on the New York Stock Exchange the word "DRY." Those "in the know" realized that the capital stock of Canada Dry Ginger Ale, Inc. had been admitted to the List of the New York Stock Exchange, and this was the ticker abbreviation for the new stock. One of the room customers in a New York broker's office remarked at the time, "Look at Dry Goods."

"That isnt Dry Goods," remarked a lady client, "that stands for Canada Dry Ginger Ale."

"Well," exclaimed another of the fair sex among the broker's customers, "if Canada Dry Ginger Ale is not Dry Goods, what is it, I'd like to know."

These ladies realized the connection between Dry and Wet goods. The Canada Company has become so successful that its net operating profit for the quarter ending March 31st, 1927, was more than half a million dollars, a profit nearly fifty per cent. more than was the profit of the company for the same quarter in 1926.

The advertisements of the Canada Company appear in nearly every worth while publication in the United States. When the company started this advertising campaign, so great was the success of it that its plant was unable to catch up with its orders for nearly a year.

Now no one in his right senses believes that a grown person will continually drink unadulterated ginger ale.

Who does not question my honesty when I question his judgment.
Who can enjoy the sight of an other man prospering.
Who doesn't try to talk about his children when I want to talk about mine.
Who isn't afraid of losing his God if he changes an opinion.

Bible Thought For Today

THE LORD'S DELIGHT—The Lord was my stay. He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivereth me, because he delighted in me. Psalm 18:18, 19.

PRAYER—Most gracious God, Thou has put us under lasting obligations to Thee.

Hon. Louis Alexander Tashereau, whose Government is at stake in today's election in Quebec, has been Premier of that Province for the past seven years. By reason of his long tunure of office he has become widely known throughout the Dominion. Both by birth and marriage Mr. Tashereau is connected with families that have long been prominent in public affairs in Canada. He is a native of Quebec City and a graduate of Laval University. After a successful career as a lawyer he entered the political arena in 1900 as a candidate for the Quebec legislature. From 1907 to 1919 he was Minister of Public Works and Labor and in the latter year he became Attorney-General of Quebec. As the chief political lieutenant of Sir Lomer Gouin he succeeded to the premiership when Sir Lomer resigned that office in 1920.

FRANKLIN JUNIOR HIGH AUDITORIUM

8:15 P. M. D. S. T.

"The occasion is the annual High School Band and Orchestra Concert. These two organizations, alone, are worthy of a packed house for as I understand it, they are continually called upon to furnish music for patriotic, civic, and community events for which funds are not available for the hiring of musicians, and that very rarely, indeed, is their treasury reimbursed even to the extent of a few dollars for any of these services rendered.

"The good-will of the community is a worth while thing, and no doubt is much appreciated by these school organizations, but then, folks, it takes money to support a good band and a good orchestra. I am told that these school aggregations have relieved the School Board of very much responsibility in keeping up their equipment. Aside from the upkeep in repairs and frequent purchases of instruments, it has a big obligation in keeping the band of over sixty pieces in uniforms. This item alone for the past five years has totaled $1800.00, every cent of which has been paid from its own treasury, and the money raised from its own concerts and donations of a reasonable amount for the orchestra's services at the various Senior High School plays.

"Furthermore, I am informed, that in spite of its own heavy obligations, the music department has agreed to give half of all the proceeds from this, THE ONLY CONCERT OF THE WHOLE SCHOOL TERM, to helping the work with the poor children of the community who are suffering from eye, ear, nose, or throat trouble.

"If you are bored by the music of these youthful but sincere musicians, I'll do my best to send you home happy after giving you a half hour of my MOST INTERESTING REMINISCENCES OR RADIO BROADCASTING. GET YOUR TICKET FOR THIS AFFAIR TOMORROW. THE COMMUNITY GETS ALL THE BENEFITS FROM IT. Many apologies for my speaking voice this evening."

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI WILL MEET TONIGHT

A meeting of the reunion committee of the New Castle High School Alumni Association will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A. for the purpose of making plans for the annual reunion of the alumni of the local high school. It will be an event of June at Cascade Park.

Byron said good blood was never manifest except in the hands. Rats! What about the ankles?

Right in your own home

This man will show you the wonders of the amazing New Easy Washer . . . FREE

HE will show you how the New Easy washes one big batch of clothes, damp-dries another big batch, and while all this is going on, handles every drop of water for you—all at the same time,—with not a single button torn off or broken, and not a single deep-pressed wrinkle put in. It sounds like magic!

Sixteen double sheets are handled at one time. While eight double sheets, or the equal in other clothes are being washed as white as snow and as gently as your own hands, the Easy's new drying tub is whirling another batch of eight double sheets, damp-dry, ready for the line in three minutes.

FREE

In order that you may see these wonders with your own eyes, we will lend you a New Easy, bring it to your home on your regular washday and let you do your week's washing with it, absolutely free and without any obligation. Should you wish to own the Easy, you can make a small down payment and keep the washer in your home permanently.

Druggists Will Come Thursday For Convention

Expect 1,000 At Least To Be In City For Western Penna. Gathering

ALL SESSIONS IN LOCAL CATHEDRAL

Noted Speakers To Take Part In Convention; Banquet Feature

Entertainment of over 1,000 druggists and wives at the banquet and convention of the Western Pennsylvania Retail Druggists' Association, which is to be held in the Scottish Rite Cathedral Thursday, May 19, is being arranged by the local committee, according to Scott Paisley, president of the association.

Word has been had from all the speakers with assurance that they will be here and the complete program is being arranged.

Three noted speakers will be on the program.

E. C. Brockmeyer, general counsellor of the National Association of Retail Druggists, who is located at Washington, D. C., will be introduced by Clarence Dixon of Butler. He will speak on "Politics for Pill Pounders".

H. S. Noel of Indianapolis, editor of the drug journal, "Till and Tile", will be introduced by the oldest druggist in New Castle, John B. Haley. His subject will be "Filling the Till".

Dr. Jacob Driver, dean of Fordham University, will be introduced by Joseph O. Noh, secretary of the Pennsylvania Pharmaceutical Association, who is located in Harrisburg. Mr. Noh will speak on "Co-operating to Conquer".

The wives of the New Castle druggists are completing their organization for the entertainment of the women delegates and guests. They are doing all that can be done to make their guests' stay here pleasant and comfortable.

One of the attractive features of the program are the door prizes that are to be given away. About 130 prizes, ranging from a Bright Auto Bumper down to a tube of tooth paste, are to be given out during the intervals of the banquet hour.

The various committees of the association will hold their meetings at a noon luncheon and have their reports ready for the meeting of the convention, which will be held at 2:30 in the afternoon. The popular meeting is the banquet in the evening at six o'clock, after which the audience will retire to the auditorium for the program of speeches and music. All the meetings will be held in the Scottish Rite Cathedral.

Many of the druggists of various counties have organized county associations since the meeting in Pittsburgh in February, says Mr. Paisley. Mr. Paisley attended the organization of the Jefferson County Association on last Saturday and expects to be present at meetings for organization of the Washington county at Washington and Armstrong county at Uniontown Tuesday.

Twelve Routed In Morning Fires At Homestead, Pa.

(International News Service)

HOMESTEAD, Pa., May 16. — Twelve residents here were routed out of their beds early today by two fires shortly before daylight that caused approximately $2,000 damage and injured two persons.

Ten persons, four women and six men, in the home of Thomas China were routed out when fire was discovered in the basement of the house shortly after 3:30 this morning. None was seriously injured, although smoke damage was estimated at $200 to the house.

A fire of unknown origin starting in a store over which was the apartment of Stephen Horkaye, resulted in the injury of Mrs. Horkaye when she and her husband were compelled to jump ten feet from a second story window to the ground. A fireman's hand was slashed by breaking glass. Damage was estimated at $1,600.

Mrs. Horkaye was taken to a hospital where she was recovering from shock and the effects of inhaling smoke.

SEVEN "BEAUTY QUEENS" FROM CORN STATE

At present the seven "Queens of the Campus" selected for the University of Iowa year book are on an equal footing, but late in May one of them will be chosen "Queen of Queens." Miss Bernice Richardson of Perry, is regarded as the outstanding contender for the honor for this is the third consecutive time she has been among the seven prettiest Iowa coeds. All of the girls are from the Corn State. The university is at Iowa City.

Enter Pleas And Get Sentences At Court This Morning

Pleas of guilty were entered by a number of prisoners in the county jail at court this morning, and sentences were passed by Judge Hildebrand.

Roosevelt Moss, charged with forging a check for $3.65 was sentenced to the workhouse for three months.

Charles Bugach, possessing liquor, $100 and costs, and county jail for three months.

Albert Zeigler, cheating and defrauding a boarding house keeper, $10 and costs, and county jail for three months.

George Lopin, possessing liquor, $300 and costs, and paroled for two years.

Margaret Steele, adultery, $25 and costs, and county jail for sixty days.

The pleas were taken by District Attorney J. Elder Bryan.

streets for a last glimpse of the notorious murder pair.

Both Mrs. Snyder and Gray were shackled to their guards. The shades on Gray's machine were drawn but the curtains on the automobile containing Mrs. Snyder were up. The so-called "icy widow" was weeping. She sat between jail matrons Irene Wolff and Nan Hart and was handcuffed to the former.

When the big green gate at the jail swung open two motorcycle policemen shot out and behind came a big blue automobile. Gray was in this machine with Sheriff Joseph Quinn and three deputy sheriffs.

The crowd pressing in on both sides hooted.

Then followed another squad of motor cycle policemen and behind that a big gray car in which Mrs. Snyder sat on the back seat.

The crowd hooted again.

Other motor cycle policemen surrounded the two machines which sped off toward Sing Sing prison. Thirteen other machines containing detectives and newspapermen followed.

Reach Sing Sing

OSSINING, N. Y., May 16.—Mrs. Ruth Brown Snyder and Henry Judd Gray, condemned slayers of Albert Snyder, the woman's husband, arrived at Sing Sing prison shortly before noon today.

Accompanied by an escort of motor cycle police, the two automobiles containing the doomed pair swept through the main street of this village, and into the gates of the prison. The shades of the cars were tightly drawn.

Without stopping at the Warden's office, which is the general rule, the line of cars swept straight into the prison grounds. The doors clanged quickly shut, and Gray and Mrs. Snyder had entered their final place of living until the hand of the law calls them to death in the electric chair.

H. B. Richards Speaks In Behalf Of Fund For Flood Relief

Report of the district conference of the Rotary Clubs was presented at the weekly luncheon of the New Castle Rotary Club held at the Fountain Inn dining room today.

Reports were given by Fred L. Rentz, Jos. Rice, Delace Cole and Dr. L. W. Wilson. The delegates seemed certain that the conference for next year would be held in New Castle.

H. B. Richards, in appealing to the club to get behind the relief fund for Mississippi flood sufferers, described how breaks in levees were fought from his personal experience.

Mr. Richards said that if we had once seen just what suffering these floods caused the quota asked for by the Red Cross from New Castle would be far oversubscribed within an hour.

CORONER'S JURY RETURNS VERDICT IN AUTO CRASH

and his machine skidded off into the gutter.

Car Skids

As it left the roadway Howe said that he applied the brakes, which were four wheel, and as the car hit the ditch, about three feet deep, he tried to keep it in the center of the ditch to avoid upsetting. The sides of the ditch were covered with grass, and the brakes did not hold the car, which skidded over the wet grass, until it struck the wing of concrete culvert, about 100 or 150 feet from the point where it left the roadway.

The steering wheel rim broke off in two pieces as the car struck the concrete. Howe was thrown over the steering wheel, Patterson was thrown forward against the windshield which was broken, and McComb was thrown over the front seat. Howe said that he was dazed but quickly recovered. He found Patterson and McComb, also dazed, the latter being in a semi-conscious condition. Patterson tried to say something but could not. Howe had to break the glass in one door to get the men out. About the time he got McComb out Police Lieut. U. G. Harper came along and assisted in taking Patterson out of the car. Harper volunteered to take him to the hospital and started. It was the opinion of Howe that Patterson was not badly injured as he only had a bruise on the right side of his head. Howe said that he had done everything possible to avert the accident. He was unable to tell what kind of a car had forced him off the road, except that it was a small car. Howe's watch had been broken in the accident and stopped. He showed it to the jury. It was stopped at 6:30 slow time or 7:30 daylight savings time.

W. A. McComb testified that he was sitting in the back seat. He was arranging to make a train in New Castle and was looking over some papers. He looked up and saw a car coming up the hill. He was in the act of placing the papers in his pocket when the machine in which he was riding was thrown into the gutter. He did not see whether the driver of the machine had been driving at the time of the accident, as he had merely glanced down the road, and saw the car coming. The next thing he knew the machine in which he was riding was in the gutter and the crash followed.

Police Lieutenant Testifies

Police Lieut. U. G. Harper, testified that he was coming from the direction of New Wilmington, when he arrived on the scene. He had assisted in taking Patterson out of the Howe machine. He placed Patterson in his own machine and started for the hospital. Patterson tried to speak but could not. He was breathing heavily until about half way to the hospital, when Harper noticed that he was lying very still. He was apparently dead when the hospital was reached.

Harper was asked if he had passed any cars before he reached the scene of the accident. He said that he had passed several between there and New Wilmington, but had not paid any attention as to what kind of cars they were, or the point at which he had passed the last one. Several other people arrived at the scene of the accident soon after it happened, but none of them had actually seen it.

No other witnesses were heard.

load, and to prove it in this instance stepped out and carried a heavy end.

This is not the end of the policemen's activities in the Flood Fund. On Friday they are staging a baseball game between the coppers and the garbage men and Mayor Dunlap promised today that another $500 would be forthcoming from this. He promised $1000.00 from the Charity Ball tickets and it's a ten to one shot his promise concerning the ball game will be fulfilled.

New Castle can be proud of its policemen. They have found time to lend a hand to the unfortunate Southerners and if the rest of us do anything near our share, the Cathedral is going to be jammed Tuesday night.

Senior Hi-Y In Final Meeting

Senior High-Y Club will meet this evening at 6:00 o'clock for the final dinner of the year in the Y. M. C. A. banquet hall.

Arthur Moor of London, England will speak to the boys on the subject of the problems of a college freshman. His topic will be very timely for the meeting this evening will be the final meeting for 20 seniors of the club and many of them will likely be college freshman with the opening of the fall semesters.

Mr. Moor is at present acting as State Student Secretary for the state of Pennsylvania with his headquarters at Harrisburg. All the boys should make an effort to be present to hear what he has to say.

As this will be the final meeting of the year election of officers for the coming year will be held tonight after the dinner. The Juniors have arranged a farewell program in honor of the Senior members of the Club.

Report Accidents Over Week End On Streets Of City

Several Collisions Are Reported; No Serious Mishaps Here

Quite a number of automobile accidents were reported to the police over the week-end.

Three automobiles figured in an accident on Highland avenue between Wallace and Boyles avenues late last night. Ralph Bolsinger of 414 East Park avenue, was driving north, when his machine collided with that of H. E. Bradley of 345 Shaw street, which was going west on Wallace avenue, after having made the safety stop, then hit the machine of Robert Putt, 211 Fairmont avenue, which was being driven south on Highland avenue, according to the report made to the police. All three machines were damaged. Mrs. Bradley had her hand hurt.

A. P. Swearer of 200 Mills Way, reported Sunday that he was driving west on Falls street at Diamond Way, when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 951-637 going south on Diamond Way, hit and damaged his machine. Mrs. Swearer was injured.

H. C. Weiker of 311 North Ray street, reported that he was driving his machine North on East street, when his machine collided with that bearing Pennsylvania license 668-459 which was going east on North street. Both cars were damaged.

Alex. Kmiotek of 1319 Moravia street, reported that he was driving north on the Mill street bridge when a car bearing Pennsylvania license A55-739 going in the same direction ran into and damaged his machine.

Al Kildoo of 1107 East Washington street, reported Saturday that he was driving east on Croton avenue, when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 449-852 going in the same direction, ran into and damaged his machine, when he found it necessary to stop suddenly.

Donald E. Florida of 612 East Main street, reported Saturday that he was going east on Washington street at Court street, when the car of Meyer Rosenberg ran into and damaged his machine.

Fred D. Abblett of 23 North Beaver street, reported that he was backing into Norris Way, when his machine hit and damaged another car.

R. G. Stull of Slippery Rock No. 5, reported Saturday that his machine was parked on East Washington street when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 775-606 going east on Washington street, hit and damaged his machine.

C. L. Hunt of Volant, reported Saturday that he was driving west on North street at Campbell's, when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 918-515 ran into and damaged his machine.

Singing Editor

When Forrest Lamont, tenor of the Chicago Opera Company, became ill and was unable to sing at the music festival of the Kansas State Teachers College at Pittsburg, Kas., a few hours before he was to sing in "The Messiah," the director called on Clyde B. Neibarger, city editor of The Pittsburg Headlight, to fill the role. Neibarger stayed at his desk all day and sang the score that night without a rehearsal. His hobby is vocal lessons and he often had sung in "The Messiah" chorus.

Youth Crawls To Freedom In Jail At Punxsutawney

Another Jail Break In Jefferson County, Sheriff Halts One Prisoner

(International News Service)

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., May 16.—Jefferson county jail, now more or less noted for frequent jail breaks, was the scene of another escape today.

Clark Craft, 17, of Punxsutawney broke jail early this morning. He was the seventh prisoner to escape from the jail in about two years, and all have employed the same method of getting out.

Young Craft, awaiting trial on an auto theft charge, obtained a strong bar from the stairway in the jail building and pried his way out of a cell. He also used the bar to dig a hole in the rear wall through which he dropped 45 feet down an improvised rope to freedom.

Sheriff C. Evans, of Jefferson county, arrived in time to frustrate the escape of Guy Selisky, in jail on a liquor charge. Selisky was crawling out of his cell when the Sheriff appeared on the scene.

A search for Craft was instituted, but he is still at large.

Two years ago four prisoners, Frank Hand, Edward Charniski, Rent Iro and Warren Wilson, broke out. They dug the hole in the rear wall which has been repaired from time to time but which still yields to the pressure of bars taken from the stairway.

Six months later John Hill and Paul Reading utilized the weak spot in the wall for a break for liberty, and were successful.

Swift Current Citizens Hear Plane On Monday

Airplane Heard At Far Northern City Last Monday Believed Lost Fliers

(International News Service)

ST. JOHNS, N. F., May 16.—Fletcher Beck, who lives at Swift Current on Placentia Bay, today informed the Captain of the French tug that is searching for Captains Nungesser and Coli, that he heard an airplane pass over his home last Monday. The airplane was then believed to have been ten or fifteen miles inland.

Swift Current is fifty miles northwest of Harbor Grace, where five residents have declared they heard an airplane last Monday, travelling in a northeasterly direction.

Three Hurt In Machine Crash At Pittsburgh

Former Prohibition Administrator, Wife And Driver Injured

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 16.—When the automobile in which they were riding was sideswiped and overturned by another car today, Frederick C. Baird, 53, former prohibition administrator for Pennsylvania, his wife, 47, and G. W. Humes, 38, the driver, were injured.

Baird and his wife are in a hospital where it was said Mrs. Baird was in a serious condition, suffering from internal injuries. Her husband received lacerations and bruises.

Humes suffered minor cuts and was not detained at the hospital.

The driver of the machine blamed for the accident, did not stop, according to Baird. Police were searching for him.

Andrews Silent On Resignation Report

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 16.—General Lincoln C. Andrews declined today to confirm or deny reports that he is again about to submit his resignation as assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of prohibition.

Commenting on a statement attributed to Wayne B. Wheeler, generalissimo of the Anti-Saloon League, that he (Andrews) "had promised to resign", Andrews declared he came into government service to reorganize and co-ordinate the various law enforcement branches of the treasury and that it was "up to Secretary Mellon, not Mr. Wheeler, to say when that has been accomplished".

Payroll Bandit Placed On Trial At Pittsburgh

Paul Jawarski, Self Confessed Member Of Payroll Gang Goes On Trial

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, May 16.—Paul Jawarski, Detroit, confessed member of a notorious payroll robbery gang, was to go on trial here in criminal court today for the murder of a payroll guard.

Having confessed his part in the recent Coverdale pay car bombing, termed one of the most vicious attempts of any bandit gang here in years, Pawarski hoped to escape punishment for his part in a payroll robbery at the Mollenauer mine of the Pittsburgh Terminal Coal corporation in 1925, but the district attorney's office decided to bring him to trial on the murder charge.

Delay was encountered at the outset when it was necessary to select a new jury panel for the succeding two weeks. Jawarski's counsel scaned the jury list closely as the court prepared to pick a jury to try the Detroit bandit.

Jawarski is charged with the murder of I. L. Gump, paymaster who was killed when a bandit gang robbed him of a $104,000 payroll. The defendant is said to have admitted being a member of the gang.

Edvin Wide, the great Swedish runner, avoids the eating of meat, because he does not want to take on flesh. At one time he weighed as much as 157 pounds, but by careful training and leaving off meat he was soon able to get down to his best running weight of 132 pounds. It is his habit to eat fish at least once a day. He never eats within six hours of entering a contest.

Sixty-One Cases Before Commission

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 16.—Sixty-one cases were listed for hearing by the public service commission here this week. Hearings began today.

Arguments on two cases against the Harrisburg City Transfer Company were scheduled, as well as three cases against the Williamsport Railways Company, on today's docket.

An amusing incident occurred some time ago on a golf course in County Cork, Ireland. A player drove a low shot from the third tee and the ball entered the ear of a donkey grazing on the links. The donkey stood still until the players were within a few yards of him. Then the animal took to his heels, with a toss of the head, which sent the ball bouncing to the ground.

Estimated Construction Budget for 1927 of the
Penn-Ohio System
For Extensions and Improvements to Supply Increased Demand for Service

Penn-Ohio System's contribution to the wealth and prosperity of its territory in 1927 is estimated to be more than $6,000,000. This money will buy material and pay wages for the construction of additions to power plants, the building of transmission lines, the erection of substations, the putting up of many miles of pole lines and wires, the purchase of meters and transformers and all of the items required to serve our present 83,000 customers and the additional thousands which each year come on our lines. ¶ These additions and betterments will contribute to the civic and industrial advancement of your community, combining to promote growth and development that marks the business activity and prosperity of this great manufacturing district. Everyone is interested in the progress of the public utilities system from which they receive daily service, and everyone will be benefited by the extensions to our equipment and facilities which this program of expansion contemplates.

Why We So Frequently Offer Our Securities

The reason why we are frequently selling stock is because we continually need new funds for extensions and improvements to our system to keep pace with the constantly increasing demand for electric service in industry and the home.

To the question—why does not new capital come from earnings?—the answer is: because the state does not permit us to charge rates to provide the necessary accumulated profits to build new lines and to make the required additions for a rapidly growing essential business.

Our earnings are limited to a fair rate on the capital invested. This return must be sufficient to meet operating expenses and taxes, to provide an adequate reserve for depreciation or replacement and to pay a fair return on the value of the property used in rendering service to the public.

To make this point a little clearer, our total system income in 1926 was $12,733,255.76. At the end of that year after paying all charges such as wages and other operating expenses, taxes, interest and dividends, we had accumulated from that and previous years a surplus of $1,604,978.57. A splendid financial statement, but in 1927 we will require $6,069,085.00 to build extensions to power houses, new lines, new substations, to purchase real estate, office buildings, new property and all the equipment necessary to serve about 6,000 new customers and to continue good service to the 83,000 present users.

Our business is that of furnishing service and is operated under the supervision of the public utilities commissions of Ohio and Pennsylvania. As we invest in new property and equipment, we submit to the commissions statements of construction expenditures. We are permitted to issue new securities covering these additions to capital value, only after securing the approval of the commission.

Every offering of stock is evidence of our growth and prosperity, furthering the stability and dependability of the entire investment.

Prof. Bressler At Grange Meetings

Deputy State Secretary Of Agriculture Gives Instructive Talks

Grange meetings on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings held at East New Castle, Mahoning Valley and Plaingrove halls, respectively at which time Prof. Bressler former dean of Agriculture at State College, now Deputy State Secretary of Agriculture was the principal speaker, was well attended by the different granges.

There were nine granges of Lawrence county represented at the various meetings and one Mercer county grange.

The granges were especially fortunate in securing Prof. Bressler for these meetings while he is located in Western Pennsylvania. He is a thorough granger and his various programs were both instructive and especially entertaining. A part of the program was given over to games and stunts.

The state secretary, John H. light of Lebanon county speaking of Prof Bressler said that he could not be in a grange meeting for one evening without doing the grange some good.

The Pomona grange has secured Prof. Bressler for their meeting which will be held on June 1 in Big Peaver grange.

Battle Is Near For Possession Of U. S. Coast

Navy Preparing For Attack; Army Is Ready For Defense

MAY ATTEMPT TO TAKE NEW YORK

BY KENNETH CLARK
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ABOARD U. S. S. SEATTLE, AT SEA, May 16.—The United States fleet, in battle array, sailed away to "war" today.

Its destination was carefully guarded. Its objective is to land a force of 75,000 "enemy" troops in the Narragansett Bay area for the purpose of establishing a base to attack either New England or New York.

The occasion was the spring maneuvers between the army and navy to test the efficacy of present coastal defenses against a possible hostile attack.

For the purpose of the maneuvers, the navy is stimulating actual war conditions. From tonight on the fleet will travel as secretively as did the American navy through the mine-laden, submarine-infested waters during the world war.

Every precaution is being taken to prevent the location of the fleet being discovered by spotting planes sent out by the army encamped along the New England coast. The navy is preparing to launch a surprise attack and escape the eyes of the army.

At night the navy will travel dark, and with its radio silenced to prevent interception of messages by the land forces.

BY JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

FORT ADAMS, NEWPORT, R. I., May 16.—Along the coast of New England, the United States army, primed for battle, today awaited a smashing attack from the sea by the powerful United States navy.

The army, charged with protecting the coast of New England, and, incidently, New York city from the "enemy," was determined to circumvent any and all attempts of the navy to land a "hostile" force on United States soil.

It is a grim business, judging by the way the army is going at it, but after all it is only a war game—the annual joint army-navy maneuvres which began this morning to continue throughout the week. For the purpose of the maneuvers, the army will be known as the "blue" defenders and the navy the "black" attackers.

Flashing into the army intelligence office at Fort Adams came radio messages this morning apprising the defenders of the fact that the "black" fleet—battleships, cruisers, destroyers, submarines, airplanes, all now merged into one weapon of attack—is "somewhere at sea" and within striking distance of the New England coast. Within the next few days, if not sooner, the fleet will attempt to land a theoretical force of 75,000 men, moving them shoreward in transports in the rear of the battleships.

If they succeed in landing these troops, the big industrial centers of New England not only will be menaced but it would be quite possible for them to march on to the great city of New York with its huge store of gold and millions of people.

PITTSBURGH, May 16. — John A. Bell, aged bankrupt banker of Carnegie, was today ordered to serve a sentence of six years and six months in the Western Penitentiary, for embezzlement in connection with the failure of the Carnegie Trust Co., of which he was president, by Presiding Judge Thomas J. Ford in criminal court.

Governor's Daughter Sets Wedding Date

Miss Mary Fisher Will Be Married In Executive Mansion, June 16

(International News Service)

HARRISBURGH, Pa., May 16.—Miss Mary Miller Fisher, daughter of the governor and Henry Tatnall Brown, Moorestown, N. J., will be married in the executive mansion here at 4 o'clock, Thursday, June 16, it was learned today.

The Rev. Dr. J. C. Pinkerton, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, Indiana, Pa., will perform the ceremony. Rev. Dr. Pinkerton offered the prayer at the Fisher inauguration ceremony here in January.

The ceremony will be witnessed only by families of the bride and groom, members of the governor's cabinet, representatives of the various co-ordinate branches of the state government and a few personal friends of the couple. A reception at the mansion will follow.

Mrs. Vernon F. Taylor, Indiana, Pa., will be the matron of honor. The best man will be Robert P. Brown, Moorestown, N. J., a brother of the groom.

Boys' Y Camp Quota Soon Will Be Full

Plan Probe Of Bleacher Crash In Philadelphia

One Man Killed, Fifty Injured As Stand At Philly Ball Park Topples

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, May 16.—An autopsy was to be held today for Fred Haas, 58, who was killed when a section of the stands at Baker Bowl, home of the Philadelphia National League team, collapsed. Fifty persons were injured, but all have been released from hospitals.

The entire right field stands may be condemned, it was reported, as a result of an investigation of the crash. A conference will be held during the day to determine what action will be taken.

Meantime, the Phillies and Cardinals were to play at the American League Park today.

Opinion Rendered On Property Sale

Error In Drawing Article Of Agreement Allowed To Be Corrected By Court

In an opinion handed down in court this morning, in the case of Vincent H. Gallagher against Carmeni Marino, Judge Hildebrand directs that an article of agreement for the sale of land be reformed.

This was a case in which Marino had purchased a house and lot from Gallagher on Harrison street. The lot was 40 feet wide and there were two houses on it. Through a mistake in writing up the article of agreement it included the whole lot, whereas Gallagher claimed that only one-half the lot or 20 feet, was sold to Marino. The latter took possession of the whole property, and suit was brought by Gallagher to have the article reformed, so that it would only include 20 feet of the lot and one house. This is granted by the court.

In the case of Sylvester Hergenrother against Nick Rosen, exceptions to a former decree were dismissed. This was a case in which a controversy arouse over a piece of property at Chewton. Rosen maintained that he was buying the property from Hergenrother, while the latter claimed that he had only rented it to Rosen. In the absence of any regular article of agreement or lease Judge Hildebrand had decided that the property was rented. Exceptions were taken to this finding which are now dismissed by the court, which means that as the matter now stands the property was rented.

County Must Match Amount Received For State Aid Roads

County commissioners have not yet decided what will be done with the $48,223.35 to be received from the state highway department for state aid roads. This amount must be matched by the county before it is expended on roads. The amount received from the state together with a similar amount to be added by the county, would build about two and one-half miles of road. There are several sections where applications have been made for improved roads.

The matter will be taken up and discussed at a meeting of the commissioners to beheld soon.

Lindbergh--'Flying Fool'

Young Pilot Who Hopped From Los Angeles To New York En Route To Paris Thrills By Achievements

By ALEXANDER C. HERMAN
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch toNew Castle News.

NEW YORK, May 16.—Charlie Lindbergh, daredevil who has set the aviation world in a tailspin, needs a new nick-name.

"Lucky" his friends called him when he saved his life in several close calls by parachuting to safety.

"Flying Fool" the headliners yclept him when he flew from San Diego to New York, enroute to Paris, in a couple of days.

But he certainly is nobody's fool. He is one of the shrewdest, most level-headed flyers who ever worked a joy-stick. And his sense of direction makes him a veritable bird of the air.

Vision Obscured

Enclosed in his cabin he sees not where he is flying. A huge gasoline tank blocks his vision forward. Instruments and closed windows surround him on the sides.

But he never takes his eyes off his compass. And he knows instinctively whether his direction is right.

His flying philosophy is simple. He wants to go to Paris. He figures out its direction. And off he goes—in a bee line.

Simplicity Itself

There are no trimmings for the boy (he is only 25 and looks much younger.) He has no publicity agents to herald his approach and his departure. He attends no banquets, makes no speeches, and does not allow the plaudits of an admiring world to turn his head.

He is the hero of adventure come to life.

He is almost too good to be true.

The Atlantic ocean is just a "big pan of water" to him. He needs no special provisioning — just "a bag of sandwiches and some water."

He was just a small timer in the field of aviation—a commercial pilot who got his training in a school only four years ago; then a "barnstormer" of the air doing tricks at country carnivals, then an air mail pilot—and now a World Hope, bent on conquering the elements which have claimed so many noble explorers of the air the past weeks.

On the field he is just a kid—open-eyed and diffident. In the air he is a master.

May the Powers That Be heed the prayers of the lone mother in Detroit and spare this hero from the untimely end of so many of his flying brothers.

Captain Charles Lindbergh, snapped in front of his monoplane, "The Spirit of St. Louis," at Curtiss Field, Long Island, N. Y.

Two Time Effect At Post Office

Eastern Standard Time Used In Post Marking Letters—Deliveries On Fast Time

Edwin W. Crawford acting postmaster at the New Castle postoffice wishes to call attention to the public that although the departments of the postoffice are running on daylight savings time yet mails are received and dispatched and letters postmarked according to Eastern Standard time.

Thus windows are open and carries both rural and city operate on city time which is one hour faster than Standard time. Yet since all through mail trains are on standard time the schedule for the receiving and dispatching of mails as published in the lobby of the postoffice are on Standard time.

A letter mailed here at 12 o'clock noon will bear the postmark 11 a. m.

Business men especially should bear in mind in mailing letters that these mails are dispatched on a schedule one hour slower than the time they use in their office and perhaps in the office where the mail is being sent.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

BY MRS. MARY MORTON

MENU HINT

Are you entertaining a small party at luncheon on your sons or daughters graduation day or giving a luncheon for a bride? The following menu is simple and easily prepared and I am sure will suit the guests.

Orange Flowers or Pineapple and Strawberries
Lamb Croquettes or Chops
Creamed Parsley Potatoes
Radishes Olives
Nut Bread or Rolls
Coffee Candies Nuts

TODAY'S RECIPES

Orange Flowers—Wash the orange, put a three-tined fork into the stem end, cut off each end down to the pulp, leaving the stem end on fork, then pare off rind to pulp; cut out each section and place on a small plate in sunflower fashion, the pieces of pulp for petals; fill center with granulated sugar; serve cold. To cut nicely have a large, firm, cold orange, and a sharp knife.

Sunset Cake—Cream one-half cup butter and add gradually three-fourth cup sugar. Beat five egg yolks with one-fourth cup milk and one teaspoon vanilla until very light, adding gradually another three-fourths cup sugar. Combine mixtures. Sift three cups flour three times with one-half teaspoon salt and three teaspoons baking powder. Add alternately with one-half cup milk to first mixture. Fold in two egg whites beaten stiff. Bake in dripping pans in a hot oven or at 373 degrees Fahrenheit. Cool and put together with marshmallow frosting. Put a thin layer of frosting on the top and sides of the cake. Put small portions of the frosting into seven little saucers. Color each portion delicately with color paste, using lavender, blue, green, yellow, orange, scarlet and rose. Put each portion in a paper pastry bag and in this order make three sets of lines going up and down on the sides. Draw a knife across the cake in several places and around the side of the cake.

Marshmallow Frosting — Put three egg whites in a large platter and add two teaspoons cream of tartar and beat until very light, adding a spoonful at a time, one pound sifted confectioners' sugar. Add one heaping spoonful marshmallow cream and one teaspoon vanilla and beat until stiff enough to hold its shape.

Jeannette Man Is Burned To Death, Home Is Destroyed

(International News Service)

JEANNETTE, Pa., May 16. — Overcome by Smoke, Gemma Pasa, 44, was burned to death in a fire of unknown origin, which destroyed the rooming house of John Zicelli in West Moreland City, near here, today.

Pasa, brother of Mrs. Zicelli, with two other boarders, was asleep on the second floor when the fire was discovered. Escape by the stairway was cut off by the blaze, but the other two boarders jumped from a window. Pasa evidently became unconscious and was unable to follow.

Three of the Zicelli children escaped uninjured.

Mr. and Mrs. Zicelli are visiting relatives in Detroit. Loss was estimated at $6,000.

"I Still Love Judd Gray" Says Ruth Brown Snyder, Prepares Self For Death

Blonde Murderess Slowly Reaching True Repentance For Crime

Together With Her Paramour Lover She Will Make Journey To Death House

(International News Service)

LONG ISLAND CITY, N. Y., May 16.—On the eve of her removal today to the Death house in Sing Sing prison, Mrs. Ruth Snyder was quoted as saying that her affection for Henry Judd Gray is not dead and that she could not hate him if she tried.

Following her recent collapse and illness Mrs. Snyder has recovered her composure and her iron nerve. If she must die she is determined to "die like a dead game sport."

Final preparations have been made at Sing Sing prison in Ossining for the reception of Mrs. Snyder and Gray, who are under sentence to die in the electric chair some time in the week beginning June 20, for the murder of the woman's husband, Albert.

The couple were due to leave the Queens County jail in separate automobiles late this morning, arriving at Sing Sing early in the afternoon.

"Death Garb"

Upon her arrival at Sing Sing Mrs. Snyder will be put through the routine mental test after which she will be conducted to the central of three cells in the women's tier. There she will find awaiting her the "death garb," consisting of a gray suit and felt slippers.

Gray will occupy a cell in the men's tier of "murderers' row" not far from the "little green door" through which the condemned persons are taken to the death chair.

Rev. Father George Murphy, chaplain of Queens County jail, declared today that Mrs. Snyder is now thinking of spiritual affairs and, for the first time, appears to realize fully the nearness of death.

"Mrs. Snyder is approaching true repentance," said the chaplain. "More and more she is showing a desire to think about religious matters. She feels the need of the God in which she had never believed. Always before she had been a woman without religious conviction. She is a different woman now."

A heavy force of police was placed about the jail early in the morning in anticipation of the great crowd which has always fought for a glimpse of the blonde housewife of Queens Village who turned murderess through her guilty love for a man other than her husband.

Careful plans were made to make the transfer from the Queens County jail to Sing Sing with the utmost quietness and speed.

Recover Bodies From Lake Milton

YOUNGSTOWN, O., May 16.—The body of George Morgan, 21, one of three young men drowned when their canoe upset at Lake Milton May 4, was recovered Sunday by his brothers, who had maintained a constant vigil since the young men disappeared.

The body of Harry Ross, another victim, was recovered Saturday afternoon, while that of the third, John Vitullo, is still missing.

The youths went to the lake in an automobile, which was found near the canoe landing next day. An overturned canoe and a coat worn by one of the young men were recovered next day.

Since the tragedy Morgan's brothers camped at the shore, searching daily for the bodies. City firemen and Sheriff Peter J. Coril and Deputy Lamont Jacobs headed the hunt, using motor boats and airplanes.

O'Brien Boy Thin and Pale

In a Little Over Two Months Gained Eleven Pounds

As a body builder, an appetite creator, and to make weak, skinny boys and girls sturdy, strong and full of energy, there is nothing like Cod Liver Oil—any physician will tell you that.

But it's vile, horrible stuff to take, and is apt to upset any stomach, so now doctors are prescribing and wise parents are buying McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—sugar-coated, and as easy to take as candy.

The son of George G. O'Brien of Mahwah, N. J., was thin and pale and did not get enough nourishment from his food. In a little over two months he gained 11 1-2 pounds and feels and looks one hundred per cent better.

Mothers, if any of your children are weak, thin or puny, give them these tablets as directed for 30 days and watch them gain flesh and health from day to day—they seldom fail—but if the unusual should happen and you are not supremely satisfied with results—your druggist is authorized to return your money.

Be sure—always—to get the original and genuine McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—60 tablets 60 cents at any druggist in America. Thousands of boxes sold daily

Probe Mystery In Plunge Of Auto Into Deep Pond

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 16.—State police today searched the files of automobile owners here to determine ownership of a mysterious car which plunged into a deep pond in the Paxtang quarries near here yesterday.

A resident nearby saw the car in the water and notified the police who worked for several hours with grapling hooks in an effort to determine if any person lost their lives in the plunge. They were unabel to find any bodies.

Announce Cast For School Play

Miss Barbara Bratschie Is Named For Leading Role

Cast for the presentation of "Craig's Wife" by the high school dramatic class is announced today.

Perhaps the most interesting selection is that of Barbara Bratschie for the leading role. Miss Bratschie has figured in all the high school productions this year and those who have commended her excellent work will welcome this opportunity to see her in a part which adequately reveals her unquestionable dramatic ability.

The selection of Norman Cotton as "Craig" will also meet the approval of a large following. Norman and Barbara are making their farewell appearance with the high school players, both being members of this year's graduating class, therefore a tinge of regret will mingle with the pleasure of seeing them once more in the final play of the year.

It is also possible that Charles Knoblock, who has done most creditable work in a number of minor parts throughout the year, will take the part of Craig in one performance. Charles has been rehearsing in the part of Billy Birkmire, Craig's friend, as well, so the public is assured of seeing this genial young man in the new play.

Those inimitable funmakers, Lucille Emery and Sylvia Martin, cast as Mrs. Harold and Mazie, the maids, promise a safe antidote for the grim portions of the play, while Eleanore Hutchison as Miss Austin, Craig's aunt, contributes charm and poise to the production.

Marian Griffith, George Ruggy, Robert MacKenzie, Rosalind Ehrlich and Mac Chambers are doing excellent work in minor roles, completing a cast which is one of the strongest of the year.

What $1.50 Will Buy In Dry Cleaning

Your garment received and given a thorough inspection.

Cleaned in 100 per cent purified cleaning solvent, free from grease and odors, by a continuous flow of solvent through your garment, the grime and dirt being washed out and washed away.

Dried by warm, fresh air, nature's own way, the newest and most modern way. The natural drying restores the cloth their natural oil giving them a new appearance. Should any odor remain from the cleaning the fresh air drying eliminates it entirely.

Inspected for spots that cleaning solvents will not remove. Sent to a spotter, where the spots are dissolved and removed forever.

Again inspected for minor rips and tears, missing buttons, etc., and sent to the tailoring department where such repairs are made, buttons replaced, without extra cost.

Now your garment is ready for final operation—reshaping—and that is exactly what is done. By our latest methods and equipment your garment is perfectly reshaped; the collar fits properly, the shoulders are shaped perfectly, the hang of the coat is right. The pants are re-shaped as the tailor intended them—the old style pressing way is obsolete now. Re-shaping gives that tailored look to all garments and they retain their shape much longer.

Now a final inspection, and your garment is put in a sanitary bag ready for service man to deliver.

Socially Inclined Not Eager For Turkish Ambassadorship

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Social competition is not expected to be very keen for the post of ambassador to Turkey, vacant ever since World war days, but soon to be filled, now that President Mustapha Kemal Pasha and Uncle Sam have fixed things up diplomatically.

The Ottoman embassy was a nice berth in the old days, when the sultan reigned, with his capital in Constantinople.

Constantinople's a beautiful city. In general it's been pretty tumbledown for many's the long generation, but it had a swell European quarter. It's right on one of the world's big main-traveled roads, with tourists coming and going, warships ducking in and out, lots of artistocratic company to visit with and plenty of brilliant entertaining going on.

But President Kemal's capital is Angora.

The very reasons that made Occidentals like Constantinople are exactly the reasons why Kemal moved away from there. He said Constantinople was too central, which made it too easy for foreigners to butt in. In fact, he complained it was so situated that the "powers," whenever they felt like it, could send cruisers right into the Bosphorus and shell him out of house and home.

He explained that his ideal of a capital was some place well inland, where the Turkish government could run things to suit itself.

He found it in Angora and more, too.

It's a jerk-water burg, right in the midst of Asia Minor; hard to get into and hard to leave; with a raw, nasty climate in winter, and hotter than mustard, dry as an ash heap and gritty with dust the rest of the year; not a modern convenience to its name.

It's a typical one-horse Turkish town of the time of the Arabian Nights.

It never was intended to house a capital, and the diplomats literally were hard put to it to find shelter when they landed there. They couldn't stand native accommodations, and there weren't any even of those.

When President Kemal moved to Angora the diplomatic corps tried to get him to let them stay in Constantinople and do business with him at long range.

Kemal said no—they could come to Angora or go home.

He's arbitrary in such matters. He showed it when the issue of extra-territoriality came up, directly after he'd elected himself president.

Extraterritoriality's one of the things the "powers" are trying to hang onto in China now. They used to have it in Turkey, too.

During the long break in diplomatic relations between Angora and Washington, Rear Admiral Mark L. Bristol has functioned virtually as American ambassador in Turkey under the title of high commissioner.

He's been a great success, but with the restoration of regular relations and Bristol's transfer to the command of the United States fleet in Chinese waters, a real ambassador must be named.

It will be a good job for some chap who doesn't mind roughing it, but Angora's no place to take a wife who wants to figure in swell society. A plaintive report I saw from there the other day describes it as a "miserable hole."

Stratford Players Planning Regular New York Season

By CHARLES A. SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, May 16.—A scheme by which the Stratford-on-Avon Shakespearean Players, beginning next year, will have a regular winter season at theatres in New York and other American cities was brought back to England by Archibald Flower, former Mayor of Stratford-on-Avon, as the result of his visit to the United States. The scheme is to be submitted at once to the Stratford-on-Avon trustees, and is almost certain of approval.

"I think you may take it that the players, beginning next year, will have a regular winter season in America," said Flower on his arrival here. "It will mean the solving of all our difficulties, financial and otherwise.

"We have always badly needed some such arrangement to keep the company going all the year round, instead of running at Stratford for about a couple of months in the summer, and then dispersing and having to be assembled again.

"I had consultations with the president and trustees of the American Shapespear Foundation, and the arrangement is such that the tour is bound to be satisfactory from our point of view. Americans will be seeing exactly the same company they see at Stratford, and we hope to stage, among other productions, eight of the Shakespeare histories in chronological order in one week."

Traffic Jams In St. Louis Force Tunnel Building

(International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, May 16.—Traffic conditions in the neighborhood of many schools in this city have become so hazardous that a system of tunnels beneath the streets for pedestrian traffic has been authorized by the City Plan Commission.

The tunnels would eliminate the necessity of school children risking their lives in crossing streets through traffic. Points where fatal accidents have occurred would be the first to have the tunnels constructed.

Poli Negri Weds Late Saturday

Noted Screen Actress Becomes Bride Of Prince At Quiet Ceremony

By EVELYN MACDONALD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

SERRAINCOURT, France, May 16.—Heroine of many a screen romance, Poli Negri slipped off Saturday afternoon for a quiet wedding ceremony with Prince Serge Mdivani of Georgia.

While hundreds of invited guests, representing the social and dramatic world of two continents, gathered at Pola's Chateau de Rueil for a garden party in celebration of the marriage, Pola and Prince Serge stole quietly away to the tiny village and were married by the mayor.

Only eleven persons composed the wedding party.

The witnesses for the bride were Casir De Hulwicz, god-father of Pola and Prince DeMidoff. The Prince's witnesses were Clifford B. Harmon, president of the International League of Aviators, and M. Tvhenkli, Georgian ambassador to France.

The only other persons present at the wedding ceremony were the mother of the bride and the father of the bridegroom, his sister, aunt and uncle and M. and Mme. Jose Maria Sert.

American Women Spend Huge Sum For Cosmetics

(International News Service)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 16.—More than $100,000,000 is spent annually by the people of the United States for perfumes, cosmetics and toilet articles, according to a statement made by Colonel Marston Taylor Bogart, professor of organic chemistry at Columbia University, speaking before a convention of toilet article manufacturers here.

Another speaker revealed that castor oil is now being used as the base of many perfumes and toilet articles.

The more flies —the less milk!

Keeping cows free from the torment of fly-bites is more than kindness. It's a cold cash proposition!

For fly-pestered cows give much less milk than unmolested cows. A light, regular spraying with Creonoid will prevent your milk supply from dropping 'way off during fly season—will pay its cost many times over!

Creonoid is effective in freeing cows and horses from flies. It eliminates mites from chicken houses, also rids hogs of lice. Come in—let us tell you how Creonoid increases live-stock profits.

We endorse Barrett CREONOID (Fly Spray and Lice Destroyer)

How seriously do flies reduce milk yields? According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, from 25 to 50 per cent — and in extreme cases from 40 to 60 per cent.

New Castle High School Pupils Win In State Essay Writing Contest

Miss Dorothy Jean Wallace Wins First Place In One Division

Miss Virginia Slee Wins Second Place in Another Division

(Special To The News)

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., May 16.—Twelve Pennsylvania high school student winners in the annual essay contest of the American Chemical Society were announced today by Dr. G. L. Wendt, dean of the school of chemistry and physics at the Pennsylvania State college and chairman of the society's Pennsylvania committee of judges. A total of 263 essays were submitted to the committee out of 632 written by high school students. The articles were written on six different subjects and two winners were chosen in each class, the first place winning $20 in gold, and second winning a certificate of honorable mention. Winners are:

Madeline M. Schuller, Central Catholic high, Johnstown, first on the subject of the relation of chemistry to the home; Virginia Slee, Senior high school, New Castle, second, or honorable mention.

Dorothy Jean Wallace, Senior high, New Castle, first, and Kathryn Wunderly, Nazareth high, second, on the relation of chemistry to agriculture or forestry.

Dudley L. Harley, a student of Mercersburg Academy, first, and James H. Miller, Ridley Park high, second, on warfare relation.

Minna J. Gruskin, Kittanning high, first, and Mary Louise Fagg, Baldwin school, Bryn Mawr, second, on relation of chemistry to the enrichment of life.

Roger W. Stamm, Pottstown high, first, and Esther H. Finkelstein, Scranton Central high, second, on relation to health and disease.

Orla W. Perry, Edinboro high, first, and Elsa Jahn, Westmont, Upper Yoder high, Johnstown, second, on relation of chemistry to development of an industry or resource in the United States.

The six first place essays have been sent to the national committee of the society in New York, entered in the national contest where the one winner in each class will be awarded a four-year scholarship at Yale, Vassar or other institutions, amounting to all tuition fees and $500 annually.

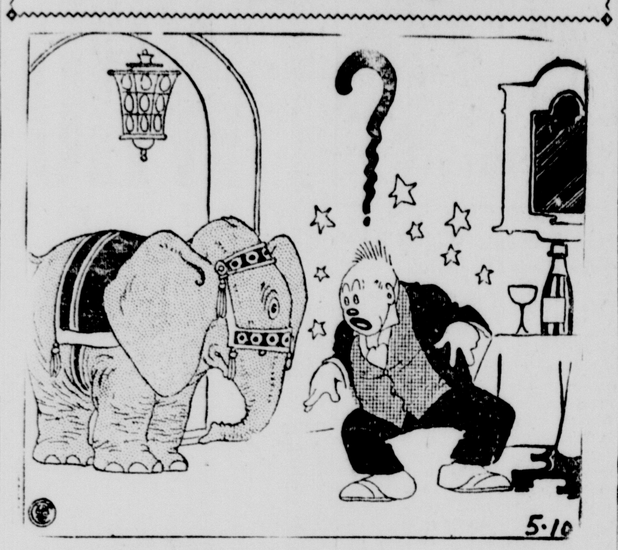
Several of the Pennsylvania essays are outstanding, Dean Wendt said today, and he was of the opinion that at least one of the six would stand good chances of winning a scholarship. This is the fifth year for the contest and no Pennsylvania boy or girl has ever won a national prize. A committee headed by Herbert Hoover will make the final selections.

In the same contest last year in Pennsylvania three state prizes were won by Philadelphia high school students, and one each by Butler, Homestead and New Castle students.

Contract Is Let For New Dam Across Shenango River

SHARON, Pa., May 16.—The Shenango Valley Water Company has awarded to William McIntyre & Sons Company the contract for a new concrete dam across the Shenango river. The structure will be located just beyond the present dam. It will be 220 feet long and eight feet high. The cost will be approximately $25,000. Work will be completed before July 1. The company recently awarded to Wallis and Carley a contract for new concrete covers for the sedimentation tank at its plant at a cost of $10,000.

Name Jigg's Elephant



"Jiggs" decided to "lay off" from then on

But the elephant was not an hallucination.

It was a real, live animal presented to "Jiggs" of "Bringing Up Father" by a Rajah of India as a tribute to the travelling ambassador.

After a while "Jiggs" got used to having the pachyderm around. Now he is looking for a name for his rather bulky pet.

George McManus, creator of "Bringing Up Father," is offering a prize of fifty dollars for the best name for the elephant.

Try to win the fifty dollars. Send your suggestion for a name to George McManus in care of the New Castle News.

Bridge Painter Falls To Death From New Bridge

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., May 16.—James J. Begley, aged 42 years, a painter, residing with his sister, Mrs. James Parsons, 603 Fifth avenue, New Brighton, was killed instantly when he fell from the new highway bridge into the Beaver river. The body hurled for a distance of about 40 feet, struck head first on the rocky bed of the river, resulting in instant death from a fracture of the skull.

He was a veteran of the World War, having served with Company G, Eighteenth Pennsylvania Infantry. He is survived by his sister, Mrs. James Parsons, New Brighton; four brothers, George of Beaver Falls, Peter of Osburn, N. Y.; Henry of New Brighton and Frank of Rochester.

ROBERT MAC LAREN IS GIVEN HONOR

Robert N. MacLaren, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. MacLaren of 715 Young street, has just received notice of his selection for membership in the League of Curtis Salesmen, an honor organization maintained by the company for boys who sell its publications.

Admittance to this organization depends upon regular school attendance and a record of efficient service to customers.

Croton School Operetta Will Be Memorable

"A Midsummer's Day" Will Be Presented At Ben Franklin Auditorium

In the charming little operetta "A Midsummer's Day" which will be given by the children of Croton avenue school on Thursday afternoon May 19 and Friday evening, May 20, in the auditorium of Benjamin Franklin Junior high school Miss Beatrice Alderman has given many beautiful little melodies which will sing their way through our memories long after the words and actions have drifted from us.

The musical numbers of the operetta will be as follows:

Opening Chorus — "Blossoms Fair."

Chorus of Bees and Butterflies.

Love Song to the Flowers—Sung by Vera Crisci.

Quen of Fairies—Sung by Virginia Kissick.

The Rain Chorus.

Mr. Poppy's Proposal—Sung by Charles Campbell and Dorothy Buxton.

On Still Warm Nights—Duet by Velmour McNaughton and Joe Bonfield.

Pretty Golden Sunbeams—Chorus.

Finale to Act One, To Fairyland—Chorus.

Brownie Chorus.

Fairy Chorus.

Midsummer's Day—Chorus and Orchestra.

A Secret—Chorus.

Come Dance Away—Sung by Virginia Kissick.

Sunbonnet Babies, Are We—Chorus.

Overall Boys are We—Chorus.

How to Make Your Garden Grow—Sung by Jessie Isabella and Chorus.

Air Mysteries—Sung by Thelma Cline and Annie Polotte.

Rainbow Song—Sung by Tony Perrotte.

Finale, ensemble—Chorus.

Five Are Killed In Auto Mishaps

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, May 16.—Five persons were dead today, four the result of automobile accidents over Sunday. Three were killed almost instantly. A fourth died from the effects of carbon-monoxide gas in a garage and the fifth died as the result of a crash a month ago.

The dead:

Kaylor Snyder, killed in an auto collision.

Mrs. Rosa Speigal, died in a hospital after being struck by a car.

Jean Coatsworth, killed when she ran out in front of a car.

Harvey Jone, died as the result of a motorcycle crash a month ago.

Benjamin Rosen, found dead in his garage from carbon-monoxide gas.

Don't be a Victim of "Spring Fever"

You Can Easily Avoid the Depressing Effects of the Changing Season.

In the Spring, many people find themselves losing appetite, are overcome by a lack of energy, and a run-down feeling takes possession of their whole body.

Spring is a great renovating season, when Nature throws off the accumulated impurities and prepares the system for the change it must undergo before merging into the coming Summer.

At this time, the energies relax, and an unspeakable languor pervades the entire system, giving that worn-out, good-for-nothing feeling, so commonly called "spring fever."

The important thing, therefore, is to put your system in tip-top condition, so as to be able to resist the common ailments so prevalent in Summer. You must build up the tissue and repair the wear that the system has undergone.

Now is the time to take S.S.S. It is unequalled for restoring strength, vitality and a keen appetite.

You owe it to yourself and family to give S.S.S. a trial. It helps Nature build up red blood corpuscles; it improves the processes by which the body is nourished, and it is time-tried and reliable. S.S.S. is made from the roots of fresh herbs and plants, and is prepared in a scientific way in a modern laboratory.

Get your S.S.S. at any good drug store. It is sold in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Community Chest Parade Saturday Night, Success

Girl Scouts Make Excellent Showing In New Uniforms And With Troop Flag

Leading Citizens Of The Town Lend Dignity To The Occasion

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., May 16.—In spite of the inclement weather, a fine parade was viewed in the principal streets Saturday night in honor of the coming Community Chest Drive.

The girl scouts deserve special mention for their numbers and appearance. There were sixty-five of them, all in new uniforms, and displaying proudly a new troop flag.

W. A. Kerr was marshal of the parade, after him came Burgess D. A. Evans, Chairman C. P. Cloak, and Vice-chairman H. N. Wasser of the Community Chest Campaign committee; officials of the Chamber of Commerce, Community Service, and the high school band, with a group of about 30 boys, lead by Prof. O. E. Bartel. This was the band's first public appearance, and they covered themselves with glory.

Next came the girl scouts, then a group of boy scouts, all carrying banners telling what benefits the Community Chest gives. The streets were thronged with appreciative citizens in spite of the unreliableness of the weather, and the entire affair went through very successfully.

"Hit And Run" Auto Operator In Evidence

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., May 16.—"A hit and run" automobile operator did his stuff last evening when Kenneth Fox was carefully proceeding along Fourth street in a heavy rain when he was sideswiped by a speeding car and had his car wrecked.

The speedster did not stop and in the mist, in the accident, Fox did not get a glimpse of the license number.

Common decency is generally exercised by motor vehicle operators, but not so this person. If the fact were known in all probability the operator may have been breaking other laws in addition to speeding.

The Ellwood City police force should augment the work of the state highway patrol and check up on some of the speeders about the city streets.

Interclub Meeting For May Postponed

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., May 16.—The monthly meeting of the Interclub Conference of Motor clubs for Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio has been postponed. The local club officials were planning on attending this session this week in Alliance but due to the fact that the annual meeting of the Ohio State association is on Thursday and Friday, the Interclub conference has been postponed.

The club is undergoing a membership drive and a number of motorists are affiliating. President Bell has set 100 as his personal goal for this week and the officers are watching with interest his work in membership.

Entertain For Newly-Weds In Frisco, Saturday

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., May 16.—Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller of Frisco entertained Saturday night at their home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Mayberry, a bride and groom of recent date. The affair was in the nature of a surprise and the honor guests were much pleased by forty-two pieces of hand painted china. The balance of the evening was spent socially. Later the hostess served a delicious lunch assisted by Mrs. Mary French.

Guests enjoying the event were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Shirly Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weddell, Mrs. Mary French, Mr. and Mrs. John Mayberry, Mr. and Mrs. Helmuth Miller, Mrs. Martha Ketterer and the Misses Hallie and Leona Miller.

Girl Scouts Have Fine Rally Saturday

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., May 16.—Miss Adelaide Werner, the regional director of the Girl Scouts was a visitor here Saturday and conducted several meetings with various executive committees, winding up with a rally Saturday night in the Methodist church. At this time the scouts sang songs, and were taught new games and stunts to use at the Scout Mother and Daughter banquet which will take place Thursday in the Baptist church. Some discussion was had regarding a summer camp, but no definite decision has been reached.

Local Minister Expresses Interest In Chest Campaign

Rev. A. M. Stevenson Makes Appeal For The Chest By Letter To Committee

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., May 16.—The following letter was received by the campaign committee of the Community Chest drive which opens May 23 here:

First Presbyterian Church, Ellwood City, Pa.

May 14, 1927.

Community Chest Campaign Committee:

Dear Sirs:—As one of the citizens of this community I take this way of expressing my interest in the present campaign. I hope the campaign goes clear over the top. As a pastor of one of our Ellwood churches I regard the Community Chest as a splendid way for Ellwood religion to express itself. I believe profoundly in community life in community effort to minister to community needs.

Personally, I am persuaded that each activity or service within the Community Chest is vital and that it can be supported better through the Community Chest than in any other way. No activity appeals to me more than life with growing young people. I have some definite knowledge of the Boy Scout work in Ellwood City and in Lawrence county and regard it most highly. It is a positive discipline that helps turn boys into worth while men. And the Girl Scout work is just as important for girls.

It has been a great satisfaction during these days of the Mississippi flood disaster that Ellwood had a fund of Red Cross money all ready for the call. In my opinion there is no way of performing personal ministries to needy people within our own community comparable to such service as that of our Community Service League. A small contact with such work in two other cities, one a little smaller than Ellwood, the other a large city, has given me positive convictions along this line. I am glad we have our Community Service League, am persuaded it is doing good work and am glad to contribute toward its support.

As a pastor I am often in our hospital and am impressed with two things. The first is the excellent work which is carried on and the second is the crying need for more room. Brand new citizens of our community who choose to arrive at the hospital should be honored with private room on a private corridor. On clinic days there is great need for a reception room. Often patients have to wait until out-going patients make room. We need the enlarged hospital.

In sending this word of assurance I wish we might accompany it with a check for a few thousand. But you may count on us for our mite and hearty support in any way in which we can help.

Yours for complete success,
ARTHUR M. STEVENSON.

Chamber Head To Speak Tonight

Lester Bernstein Will Talk Before The Annual Forum Dinner Of The Chamber

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., May 16.—Tonight has been set aside for the annual Forum dinner of the Chamber of Commerce which will take place in the dining room of the First Presbyterian church. The speaker of the evening will be Lester Bernstein of Philadelphia, who is a chamber official.

He has chosen as his topic "Community Cooperation," and is expected to touch on an analogy between departments of a large corporation and industries, financial and government agencies of the community. Cooperation in commercial development, in community development and activity and the cooperative principle applied to various forms of community government. His speech should be a great help at the present time, when the Borough Council is seriously considering the adviseability of employing a City Manager.

Your Smile and Your Teeth

Anita Stewart

How Movies' $100,000 Smiles are Made Gleaming White

MODERN dental science now has found a way that restores "off-color" teeth to clearness, that gives toneless gums a healthy coral tint.

Famous movie stars use this way before going on a scene. That's why movie smiles glisten so. Leading dentists urge it widely. For it protects the teeth and firms tender gums.

It is called Pepsodent—a new-type tooth paste that works by removing the dingy film coat from teeth that old-time dentifrices did not clear off successfully. That's why brushing has failed you.

Run your tongue across your teeth and you'll feel that film. A slippery coating that absorbs discolorations and keeps your teeth off color, that breeds bacteria and invites tooth decay, gum troubles and pyorrhea.

Remove it and you will be amazed at what you see. Discard old ways now. Get Pepsodent at any drug store. Or send coupon for 10-day tube to try.

Citizens May Will Money To Hospital

Donations May Be Given To Local Hospital As Beneficiary

ELLWOOD CITY, May 16.—A new form of giving to the local hospital has been made known by the members of the Community Chest Campaign committee, in that the citizens of Ellwood City may defer their payment until after their death, making a legal mention of a donation in their will. It is very simple just to add a codicil to the will if it is already written, or incorporating it in a new will.

Explanations follow in detail:

Hospitals are institutions of mercy, their work is to minister to the sick and the injured. They are not run for profit, and the charge made for their service is in most cases less than cost.

As this ministry is recognized by individuals, many have it in their hearts to contribute to these institutions that their work might be broadened and extended so that suffering humanity may receive the care that only such institutions can give.

Some contribute while they can yet see the fruits of their gifts, others leave a legacy by will. These gifts and legacys are in many forms, sometimes a free bed is endowed, a children's ward furnished, special equipment given, or a home for nurses built. More ofter these gifts are in the form of an endowment, the principal invested in securities and the interest from same used annually for maintenance of the hospital.

These endowments enable most hospitals to carry on their ministry at a minimum charge to those who are able to pay, and are thereby saved the necessity of asking for yearly contributions from the community. If it were not for the endowments and gifts many hospitals would be compelled to charge rates that only the very well-to-do could pay.

Our hospital has two endowments, the Jane Worcester Memorial Fund of $1100.00 and the R. R. Liebendorfer Endowment of $621.92.

For those who would like to help minister to the sick and injured through the years to come may do so by making a contribution in any form they may desire, or by stipulating a gift in their wills or if already written by adding a codicil to same.

The following forms of bequests and devises are submitted:

(1) I give and bequeath to the Ellwood City Hospital, Ellwood City, Pa., the sum of ..... Dollars, to be used for such purposes as the Board of Directors, in their judgment, determine.

(2) I give and bequeath to the Ellwood City Hospital, Ellwood City, Pa., the sum of ..... Dollars, the interest on said sum to be used annually for maintenance, and the principal to be invested by the Board of Directors in securities and at such rates of interest as they may obtain.

(3) I give and devise the following real estate, to wit: (here fully describe the real estate) to the Ellwood City Hospital, Ellwood City, Pa., to be held, used and enjoyed by said hospital as its absolute property, and to use the income thereof until sold, and the proceeds thereof, after sale, for hospital purposes.

(4) I give, devise and bequeath to the Ellwood City Hospital, Ellwood City, Pa., for the Reception and Cure of the sick and injured. (Indicate the nature and purpose of the gift.)

A bequest for charitable purposes is void unless the will is executed at least one calendar month before the death of the testator, and is attested by two credible, and at the same time disinterested, witnesses.

Accident On Wampum Avenue Saturday

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., May 16.—A car owned by W. E. Spangler was hit in front of 606 Wampum avenue by a car driven by Louis Shierdone of Hazel avenue. Spangler's car suffered a broken frame, fender, tire carrier and rear glass, while the other car was also badly damaged. After hitting Spangler, Shierdone careened across the street and took the wheel off a car that was parked along the curb.

Nick Scabick, alleged to have been driving while under the influence of liquor, drove into a car owned by P. M. Weaver of Kaylor, Pa., who was visiting here yesterday. The accident happened about 9 o'clock near Barnes' Garage on Wampum avenue. Scabick was taken to jail on an intoxication charge.

WHO BENEFITS?

From Your Donation to Ellwood City's Community Chest Fund?

FIRST—YOU, YOURSELF

The knowledge that you have done your part in a worth while work should be sufficient reward,—You know it is "More blessed to give than to receive". You may be in need of help someday.

SECOND—YOUR, HOSPITAL

You may never need the hospital for yourself or for any member of your family, but you wouldn't like to see it taken away from Ellwood City, would you? You know some one needs it every day,—every hour in the day or night.

YOU MAY NEED IT SOME DAY. IT NEEDS YOU NOW.

THIRD—THE COMMUNITY SERVICE LEAGUE

No other agency is doing so much to relieve the suffering of the helpless as The Community Service League. Thru this organization, the needy get help in many ways in a fair and impartial manner. Your charity is well distributed in this way.

FOURTH—THE BOY SCOUTS

The Boy Scout Organization is building Real men out of Real boys by a Program that works. You can't give any better proof of your citizenship than be helping to prepare the young men of today for citizenship tomorrow.

FIFTH—THE GIRL SCOUTS

What the Boy Scout Program is doing for the boys, this organization is doing for the girls. It provides them with the kind of training that makes them better fitted for their duties as Women,—duties towards God, Country and Home.

Wasn't Intended to Beautify People, But It Does

Remarkable Results Follow the Taking of the Wonderful World's Tonic

"For years I had suffered from indigestion. The effects were marked, for while I am yet a young woman, I grew painfully thin, the color left my skin, and it became sallow and ugly, and my eyes lost their sparkle and grew so weak I had to wear glasses.

"Nobody seemed able to tell me what was the matter, and I didn't feel like going out with other young people at all. Finally my grocer told me he had been wonderfully helped by World's Tonic, and urged me to get a bottle. He said he thought I had catarrh. I guess he was right, for about the first effect of this wonderful medicine was to clear up my head. In a few days my appetite increased, and I felt much better. After two bottles my skin began to clear up, and the pink showed through. At the end of three bottles I commenced to gain in weight.

"Now people comment on my improvement. My skin is clear and rosy, my eyes are bright, and I have gained 20 pounds. I didn't commence World's Tonic as a beautifier, but in addition to relieving my catarrh, it has done more for me than all the face creams, mud packs, etc., that I have ever used.

That is the story told by a young woman who visited a local drug store Saturday.

World's Tonic will help you. It is sold by McKee's, Eckerd's, Paisley's, Smith's and all other reliable druggists. (276)

Colds and Coughs

MOTHERS soon learn there's magic in a timely dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. "It has meant more to me than any other medicine I know of. My children love the taste of it and like to take it. Syrup Pepsin has meant much to my girl who is now thirteen years old and has taken it ever since a tiny baby. After taking it their colds and coughs vanish. I have had many experiences with good old Syrup Pepsin and just can't praise it enough." (Name and address sent upon request.)

Truly a Family Medicine

Why ever be sick? Let Syrup Pepsin clean out the cause of colds, coughs, fevers, bilious attacks, sour stomach, sick headache. From the teething period to the infirmities of old age, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has been the family safeguard. Countless friends urge you from years of happy experience to always keep Syrup Pepsin in the home. Get it today and have it handy, always. Sold by all druggists.

PETERS ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

By Florence Smith Vincent

TRICKING A TRICKSTER.

Hearing the Boy's cry, Fox turned and glided back to his side. "What's the matter?" asked he. "Not frightened are you?" and again he opened his mouth and showed all of his teeth only this time the Boy imagined that his smile was not quite so pleasant as it had been before. And suddenly, for no reason at all, he felt little shivers running up and down his spine. But something told him not to let Fox see that he was afraid. So he managed to smile himself and said:

"What long teeth you have Fox!"

And Fox answered:

"All the better to grind up my food with" and gritted them together in a way that made the Boy wish to change the subject.

The Boy had been closely watching Fox as he talked and now he saw the fellow's eyes narrow until they were nearly closed.

"What are you thinking about now, Fox?" asked he. "You look as though you were making up your mind to play a trick upon someone."

"I am thinking how I can get even with Weasel for keeping me hanging around this burrow all that time and then letting those Chipmunks escape. If only he hadn't 'buted in' I should have caught one in due time. And one mouthful is better than none at all you know—and I have had none at all. He shall pay for it. Now let me think' While we were waiting at the back of the burrow he told me of a nest of field mice that he had discovered and which he intended to 'clean out' as he expressed it, in a few days. He told me that the only reason he had left it alone so long was so that the mice should have time to grow a bit fatter—he liked them plump. Now I don't care for Field Mice but just to get even with the rascal I am going to make an attack upon that nest myself and scatter those Mice to the four ends of the field to spite him. When Weasel goes a hunting then he will be the most disgusted Four-Foot in the land. 'Woof, Woof!' What a good joke on him that will be."

The Boy thought so too and as long as the trick would not work harm for any of his little friends of field of forest he was quite willing for Fox to play it upon the bloodthirsty Weasel.

"I should like to see you do it!" cried he, and Fox took him at his word.

"Fine!" said he. "You are a better sport than I thought you were. I was afraid that you would try to spoil my fun. If you want to see me do it jump on my back and we'll be off to the meadow where the Field Mice live!"

Next: "Off to Find the Field Mice."

CUPS ARE AWARDED TO SCHOOL WINNERS

(By WILBUR McCULLOUGH)

In the annual Lawrence County track meet, held at Union High school, Scotland Lane, Saturday, Union High was victorious with eighty-three and one-half points. New Wilmington ran a close second with eighty and one-third points.

Scores for the other schools were as follows: Bessemer, seventy-three and one-half; Wampum, nineteen; East Brook, eight and five-sixths; Shenango, five.

During the meet the events were run in A, B, and C classes, Union ran home with the A and C class honors while New Wilmington captured the cup in class B.

Although the weather looked bad from the start of the meet at 10 a. m., the field was in good condition up to the time of the relay races coming last in the meet. Speed was hampered greatly in these contests.

Cups were awarded the winning schools in the different classes. Union taking two for the A and C classes, the B class cup going to New Wilmington. In single event contests, gold medals were awarded the first place markers, bronze medals for second and ribbons for third. Union, taking twelve gold and eleven bronze medals with eight ribbon honors led the field in single mention. New Wilmington held a large lead in class B mention holding 42 points, Bessemer placing second with 38 and one-half.

Throughout the meet many contestants from the various schools were disqualified, these causing much dispute only added excitement to the fact that in the class B one mile race several claimed that the contestants had run nine laps instead of the required eight.

Following are the events run during the meet with names of winners and the school they represent:

Whiskery Wins Kentucky Derby. Osmond Second

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 16.—The Kentucky Derby classic here Saturday afternoon, wasn't a neck and neck finish, it was a whisker and whisker affair, with Whiskery the winner by a whisker. Harry Payne Whitney the New York millionaire won the $51,000 prize and therefore will not starve for at least another moon.

Osmond that good horse owned by J. E. Widener of Philadelphia, Pa., finished so close behind Whiskery that the judges for the moment thought that the winner was a lone horse. When the matter was straightened out they found that it was two horses. Jock finished third and a little further back than the other two.

It was a great race, perhaps the closest that has been staged here in the 53 years of the Derby existence, and some 85,000 souls sat or stood and yelled themselves into a flock of cough-drops and headache tablets while the runners tore down the home stretch with the throttle wide open.

Harry Payne Whitney had a winner in the Derby race of 1915, and so the floral tributes and other glories showered upon him by the dignitaries didn't effect his sauve manner.

Whiskery proved Saturday that to win a horse race these days, when horses are horses that you must have long whiskers.

Clifton Flats To Play Garlands In Opening Game Today

The Clifton Flats fans held a booster meeting recently and decided that they would back the Flats entry to the limit. Tonight on the Clifton Flats Field the West Pittsburg Garlands will be the attraction.

Canton Defeats New Castle, 8-6; Rain Mars Game

Canton Rally In Eighth Inning Proves Too Much For Local Bays

Meis Hurls Fine Game, But Ragged Support Causes Downfall

By "BUGS" WALTHER

Jupitor Pluvius tried his level best Saturday afternoon to put a stop to the Canton-New Castle game scheduled in the O. & P. league park. Old Man Pluvius didn't accomplish his purpose, but he did make it most unpleasant for baseball playing. Canton defeated New Castle 8 to 6, on a field that was more fit for Channel swimming.

A downpour of rain about one hour before game time laid the dust at the ball orchard and when the players arrived at the park they found the field in almost perfect condition. It started to rain a few moments before the game was called and it didn't quit till the contest was finished. The field was soupy, soggy and extremely dangerous. The players slipped and slid in the mud and the scorekeepers were mighty generous in their accounts. Seven errors were chalked up, five by the locals and two by the visitors. Only the most glaring misplays were counted.

For the first five innings the game was one of the best seen at the local park this year. Carl "Molly" Meis the big pitcher from Toledo was more effective than a quart of nitroglycerine and only three Canton players punched out hits in the five frames. New Castle on the other hand found the offering of Gantz much to their liking, and on two occasions had the bases completely smothered with men, but by some twist of fate or something else they didn't score.

Rain Stops Game

The rain came down a little faster in the fourth inning, than had been the custom and the impires thought that it would be wise to call the game for several minutes and so the contest was halted for about fifteen minutes. The rain ceased and the battle was resumed. Despite the wet slippery ball Meis was pitching a fine brand of curves and Canton found him difficult to solve. Two Cantonites slammed out singles in the fifth inning, but they couldn't advance to the plate.

Canton broke the blood vessel in the sixth frame. Agler flied out to general, Grimes poked a single into center field, Corl was given a free ticket to first, Meis tried to catch Corl off first and threw wild with Grimes going to third. Miller hit to Shaffo and Grimes tallied, with Corl on third Bryan let a pitched ball get away from him and Corl raced home with the second run. Marker fanned and Meis tossed out Kinney to end the inning.

Sport Alphabet

By NORMAN E. BROWN

There are enough Barneses starring in sports to give them the "top" in the "B's."

And heading the list is Jim Barnes, "Long Jim," golfer by profession and smiler by habit.

He's one of four Americans who have won the British open title, blue ribbon event of the golf world.

He has held all the major golf titles at one time or another.

Won the American open in 1921, won the western open in 1914-17-19.

Copped the pro title in 1916 and 1919 and the British open in 1925. He has taken a score of sectional trophies.

He's a Cornishman and started his career on the Pacific Coast, moving later to St. Louis and then to the eastern coast.

Among the other Barneses of note are the baseball brothers, Jess and Virgil.

And Lee Barnes, pole vaulter.

And among the other B's we have—

Mary K. Browne, golfer and tenniser.

Arne Borg, Weismuller's only rival as a swimming king.

Golf Alphabet—H

By Feg Murray

Copyright, 1927 by Metropolitan Newspaper Service

Englishmen are supposed to drop their H's. If that popular supposition is true, plenty of them must have been dropped on the various golf courses of the world, for there are no less than a half hundred more or less prominent tournament players whose last names begin with the eighth letter of the alphabet.

Truly "the H's hold the Heights in the golfing world," and no further proof of that fact is necessary than to state that an "H" golfer has won the British amateur championship eleven times, British open seven times, the American amateur championship thrice, and the United States open three times! Besides that remarkable records, add eight United States women's titles won by H's, three British women's crowns, and French, Canadian, professional and minor championships too numerous to mention.

What "H," then, has won the most major titles? Most of you would probably say Walter Hagen. But Sir Walter, in spite of two United States open victories and two British open titles to his credit, does not lead the list, although if you added his wins in the Professional Golf Association tournaments, it would be a different story. Harold H. Hilton (Please notice the three H's), an English amateur, is the champion "H" of all, having won the amateur or open championship of Great Britain or the United States seven times. Hilton finished first in the British open in 1892, 1897, won the British amateur in 1900,1901, 1911 and 1913, and the United States amateur in 1911.

The Hezlet family of Ireland deserves a paragraph whenever "H" golfers are mentioned. May Hezlet was thrice British women's champion and runner-up once, and her two sisters, Florence and Violet, accounted for three second places in 1907,1909 and 1911. Major Charles Owen Hezlet was runner-up in the British amateur in 1914, and was a member of the British Walker Cup team in 1924 and 1926.

Hooks, Hazards, Honors, and Holes-in-one must not be H omitted.

Feg Murray Says:—

Yes, Esmeralda, any harassed manager knows that it takes a lot of twenty-five cent pieces to make new training quarters.

Massillon Here Wednesday Night

Agathons To Meet New Castle In League Game On Wednesday Night

The Massillon Agathons will be the attraction at Centennial Field here Wednesday night at 6 o'clock, against the New Castle team of the O. & P. league, it was announced today.

The Agathons defeated New Castle yesterday at Massillon by a score of 6 to 0. The Ohio boys recently stopped the winning streak of the Homestead Grays.

The directors of the local team are busy with telegrams and phone calls today in trying to land a couple of pitchers to help Meis and Jamieson over the rough spots.

Maxim the former second-baseman has returned to the locals and will be seen at short-stop in the game here Wednesday. Brehanney will be back on third and Lawrence will be shifted to second according to the directors. Swartz will continue to play first base. This youngster has won a warm place in the hearts of the fans through his clever fielding. Weimer, McCullough and General will be in the outfield.

Ryantown Team Desires Games

The Ryantown team of the Lawrence County Twilight League is desirous of booking games with all fast teams in the city and county.

Tuesday night the Ryantown boys will clash with the league leading Edenburg team on the Sampson street field. The game is called for 6:30 o'clock. The game between Ryantown and West Pittsburgh played in the league last week has been protested and will be acted on by the three league commissioners.

For games with the Ryantown club get in touch with the manager by calling 2295-R between 5 and 5:30 o'clock ask for Earl when calling for games.

Commissioners Fix Several Protests

Three games played recently in the Lawrence County Twilight League have been protested to the Board of Commissioners.

The Commissioners:—Attorney James C. Chambers, Louis "Pick" Glitch and Charles "Bugs" Walther, have ruled on the protests in the following manner:—

South Hills at Troop B May 3, game to be played over.

Radiator Stars at South Hills May 10 game remains as played.

Ryantown at West Pittsburg, May 12, game to be played over.

Pirates Advance To Second Place

Pittsburgh Downs Brooklyn And Replaces Cardinals As Runners-Up

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, May 16.—The Pittsburgh Pirates today have displaced the St. Louis Cardinals as runner-up to the Giants in the National League race. The Pirates defeated Brooklyn yesterday while the Cardinals were idle and advanced to second place, although they did not gain on the speeding Giants.

The Pittsburgh-Brooklyn game was a slam-bang affair, seven pitchers being used. Brooklyn tied it up after staking the Pirates to a six run lead. But eventually lost 9 to 6. Jay Partridge, Brooklyn second baseman, made an error after having accepted 92 chances.

The Cincinnati tradition that no Red pitcher ever finishes a game he starts, was maintained when the Rhineland outfit lost to the Giants again 6 to 3. Hugh McQuillan was the winning pitcher and Eppa Jeptha Alpha Omega Rixey was the goat. Hornsby got three hits and tied Eddie Farrell for leading batting honors.

Some powerful slugging featured the Brown's 8 to 6 victory over the Athletics. Schang and Bing Miller of the Browns and Lamar of the A's each had a perfect day at bat.

Schang's homer with the bases full broke up the game, while Miller's four hits boosted his total to eight bingles in two days.

The White Sox got the hits but the Red Sox got the breaks and won 2 to 1. The Back Bay boys got only four hits off Al Thomas but bunched three of them with an error in the first inning. Tony Welzer was the winning twirler.

The other teams did not play. Snow in Detroit kept the Yankees and Tigers idle.

New Castle High Finishes Seventh In Schoolboy Meet

Washington High Wins W. P. I. A. L. Track Meet Saturday At Pittsburgh

Walter "Baldy" McGrath, football player, basketball star and track man deluxe, gained the only first place secured by New Castle high in the annual W. P. I. A. L. track and field meet staged Saturday afternoon at the Pitt stadium. New Castle high finished seventh in the meet with a total of 11 1-5 points.

Washington high with a well balanced team of mud trotters captured first place in the schoolboy battle for track supremacy. Beaver high was second and Beaver Falls and Monongahela high were tied for third place.

Walter Smith the local chap took a third in the 100 yard dash and McGrath placed third in the 220 yard hurdles. Brenner of New Castle gained 1-5 of a point by tieing with four other boys for third place. Hammond of New Castle won third place in the javelin throw.

Despite the muddy track Peabody High took the mile relay in the new record time of 3:26 3-5 with Beaver Falls second; Beaver, third; and Turtle Creek fourth.

Pirate Clouting Trims Brooklyn

Twenty-Two Thousand Brooklynites See Dodgers Fall

MORRISON TAKES MEADOWS' PLACE

BROOKLYN, May 16.—The Pirates defeated Brooklyn, 9 to 6, yesterday and are in second place in the National League. Twenty-two thousand rabid Brooklynites witnessed the tilt. They saw Meadows relieved and Morrison rapped in the sixth and it was not until the seventh that the Pirates chased over the winning runs, though they scored a ninth in the ninth.

The game sallied along until J. Pluv. commenced expectorating and it looked as though the 22,000 fans would be sent home. The Pirates were engaged in making runs and they tried to get the inning over. The skies cleared and when the sixth came on and Brooklyn deadlocked the score they were more than anxious to continue the setto.

Jess Barnes was an early victim of the Piratical assault, but Meadows lasted longer. Morrison was hit until the deadlock was over. Cantrell and Pitt did not last long and in the seventh with Ehrhart pitching Wright singled to left, Grantham doubled and Wright went to third. Traynor hit a fly and Statz scored on the out. Harris flied out and Grantham scored likewise, which put the Pirates on safe footing, and in the ninth Wright was advanced by hits and scored on a wild pitch.

Maloney Favored To Beat Sharkey

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 16.—Jim Maloney was a 7 to 5 favorite today to defeat Jack Sharkey in their fifteen round bout at the Yankee Stadium here Thursday night for the championship of Boston and a crack at the heavyweight title.

The odds shifted to Maloney because of a slight injury suffered by Sharkey while training at a local gymnasium. A cut was opened over his left eye when he was butted by his sparring partner, Fred Mays.

As a result of the injury Sharkey will do no more boxing until the fight. Maloney will box a dozen rounds or so today at his camp in Long Branch, N. J., Maloney is now down to 204 pounds while Sharkey weighs 193.

George Calza, the well-known professional wrestler, is said to be a remarkable long-distance swimmer.

During the past season, for the first time in twenty-three years, an English football team won a victory over a Scottish team on Scottish soil.

Brindza In Fine Form Whitewashes New Castle In O. & P. League Game

(Special To The News)

MASSILLON, O., May 16.—Brindza was in rare form yesterday afternoon at the local ball orchard and the Agathons remained tied for the leadership in the O. & P. League by dropping New Castle, 6 to 0. The Pennsylvanians were given a fine coat of kalsomime.

Jamieson was sent to the mound by New Castle and his offerings were appetizing to the locals, 15 hits being gleaned off the rotund hurler; three of them for extra bases.

The game was well played, despite the extremely cold weather, with but one error marring the contest. Hogan and Roberts were the best hitters for the Agathons, with three apiece, while Stiff also hit timely. Jamieson was the only New Castle player able to solve Brindza for more than one hit.

It was the fourth straight league victory for the local clan.

'Pennsy' Loses To Ellwood, 6-3

League Champions Overcome Pennsylvania's Lead In Third

HUTNIC WILD AND HIT TWELVE TIMES

Ellwood City defeated the Pennsylvania railroad, 6 to 3, at Mahoningtown Saturday afternoon. Hutnic twirled for the railroaders and Boyle delivered for Ellwood City.

Pat held the lantern-swingers to three hits, fanned five and had good control. Hutnic had speed and fanned 12 batsmen, but he was wild and was touched up for a dozen hits.

Rain fell during the afternoon and both teams were guilty of errors, but not as many as the old rainmaker, J. Pluv', thought they should have. Only seven were made on the water-soaked field.

The Pennsylvania got to Boyle in the first inning and when the sound of the willow had echoed to the regions of "JU" tower three runs had crossed the plate.

Ellwood City had their revenge in the third, when they scored four runs, but no more scores were made until the sixth.

It was in the latter part of the sixth that Ellwood earned another run, and this gave them two to the good and thereafter the railroaders went scoreless while the Tubers piled up a three-run lead.

The game was opened with the P. R. R. band giving a concert and Superintendent J. A. Appleton pitched the first ball to Trainmaster Perry. Evans and Parks, Mahoningtown umpires, worked the game. The box score:

AMATEUR NOTES

The Castletons defeated the North Street Hi-Y team by a score of 14 to 9, in a game played Saturday afternoon at Boyles Field. The game was a free hitting affair.

The various junior midget teams are asked to get their scores early to the News office.

The Irish Nine won a forfeit game from the Laurel Sluggers when the latter team failed to show up for a regularly scheduled encounter on Boyles field.

The Clifton Flats Juniors defeated the South Side Pirates 5 to 4 in their opening game of the season. The game was played on Parks field. Nail's triple with the bases loaded in the first inning gave the Clifton Flats team their victory.

The Clifton Flats Juniors would like to arrange games with all first class junior teams in the city and county. For games get in touch with Francis Hiler at R. D. 1, Box 228 or by calling 2102, Rigby.

The Hoodoo Nine defeated the Houser-Kennedy team 7 to 5 in a well played game at Cascade Park grounds. P. McKay, Lannigan and Liversage starred for the winners, while Fernati played best for the losers. The Houser-Kennedy team had but five hits off the delivery of J. McKay and Liversage.

Dogs with cropped ear are barred from exhibition by the British Kennel Club, which in 1895 received a letter from King Edward, then Prince of Wales, stating that he disliked them.

CANTON DEFEATS NEW CASTLE, 8-6

New Castle had two hits in the sixth inning but failed to score.

Canton Scores Six

With Canton leading 2 to 0, in the eighth inning things started to happen quite suddenly. Agler the first man up flied to McCullough. Thompson gathered in a grounder from Grimes but tossed over Swartz's head, with Grimes taking second. Corl lined a hot grounder to Swartz and the first baseman muffed it. Miller hit to Lawrence and the new third baseman heaved it into the weeds back of first base, with Grimes and Corl scoring. Marker was given a walk. Kinney drew a walk and the bases were filled. Meis was derricked in favor of Robert Flynn at this stage of the game. Geary greeted Flynn with a single, Gantz singled, and Davis singled and all the runners tallied. Agler, Corl and Grimes batted twice in the inning.

New Castle tallied two runs in their half of the eighth inning on doubles by Lawrence and Flynn and a single by General, before Gantz would stem the tide. The locals in their half of the ninth inning threatened to overtake the visitors by scoring four runs before Gantz could be jerked in favor of Howenstein. General and Flynn poked out doubles, and McCullough and Shaffo had singles in the ninth inning rally.

Howenstein stopped the rally by making Swartz and Thompson go out on easy infield rollers.

Swartz Stars in Field

Swartz the new first sacker from Cincinnati turned in the fielding features of the game, on several occasions the sandy-haired youth leaped high into the air to take wild throws from the infielders. At bat Swartz was just a little weak having a single in six trips to the platter. General played his customary fine game in the field Saturday nabbing three flies, with the willow the former County leaguer had four hits including a double. McCullough batted in form Saturday and had three bingles. Shaffo, Lawrence and Flynn also hit timely.

Gantz was the only player able to solve Meis and Flynn for more than one hit. Grimes with nine putouts at shortstop featured for the visitors, he had more putouts than did the Canton first-baseman, a most unusual feat.

It was the second defeat of the league season for the locals at Centennial Field, Youngstown having turned the trick in the opening game of the year.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN

Knowing Connie Mack as I do I feel that Ban B. Johnson's criticism of him in connection with the Cobb-Simmons-Ormsby case was entirely uncalled for.

It is another indication that Johnson is acting headstrongly, with an abandon that will keep baseball in a ferment as long as he carries on the duties of his office.

This is said in full realization of the debt baseball in general and the American League in particular may owe him for past services.

Connie Mack is the most mild mannered gentlemanly person in baseball. Everyone who knows him laughs at the idea of Connie even countenancing rowdyism, let alone suggesting it or approving it.

The only criticism toward Connie as a baseball manager has been his lack of agressiveness in any way. Connie plays baseball and wants his men to play it with sportsmanship the outstanding feature. Being a thorough gentleman himself he expects others to be his kind.

How Johnson expected Connie, from his place on the bench, to prevent the action on the field which led to the suspension of Cobb and Simmons is a mystery.

Sad Sam Jones, who appeared about done with the New York Yankees last year, seems to have found the elixer of life in St. Louis. Won a total of nine games with the pennant winning, hard hitting Yanks behind him last season. Has won half that number so far this year.

The world's fastest woman sprinter is Miss Fumike Terao, the Japanese girl athlete who has broken the 100 metres world record in competition in Tokyo.

The Longwood Bowl tournament, at Boston, is the oldest of all tennis competitions in the United States.

Two-Year Program Of Roads Cost $250,000

MERCER, Pa., May 16.—Visits of R. B. Fleming, assistant district engineer of the State Highway Department at New Castle and County Commissioner F. P. Minner, who is in charge of the road construction program in Mercer County have been made in 13 townships in Mercer County and met with the road supervisors in the 23 townships in the county.

The plan under which ash and slag roads can be built are set forth in detail to each set of township officials.

The officials explain in what manner the applications must be made out and how the money will be dispensed. It is said that 50 miles of road will be built additional this summer and next, if not in 1927 alone. It will average a cost that would make the total program cost $250,000.

Each of the 23 townships will build some new roads.

Reports Corn Borer Found In Corn

Persons purchasing new corn now on the market will do well to look over the corn, when purchased, according to Day Sergeant Frank M. Jones, and the sanitary police force of the city.

Yesterday, Mrs. Fred Reeher of 515 West North street, reported to Mr. Jones, that she had purchased some green corn from a local merchant and on examing it preparatory to cooking it, found that it was full of corn borers.

She investigated and found that the corn had been shipped in from Florida. The health department was notified and persons purchasing green corn and finding borers in it, are urged to burn it up, in order that the effort to eliminate the borers in this district may not be interfered with.

Mrs. Reeher destroyed the corn.

Two questions that most vex the souls of men: "Where are you going?" and "What do you want for dinner?"

YES, IT IS COLLEGIATE!

This bit of stone sculpture will adorn the new addition to Princeton Graduate College. It's supposed to typify philosophy, or something like that.

Barrels Of Liquor Dumped Into Sewers

MERCER, Pa., May 16.—Some hundreds of gallons of wine, white mule, home made brew of all kinds will be dumped into the sewers by the order of court today by Sheriff W. A. Bone and his deputies.

The work will be done under the supervision of County Parole Officer Rev. T. K. Thompson.

The liquor is that taken in speakeasy raids made by county police and detectives.

West Pittsburg Makes Merry With St. Philip-James

Lazar Strong On Blues Combination; Luki Entertains Giving 17 Hits

West Pittsburg Blues defeated St. Philip and James 15-1 in a game played on the West Pittsburg grounds Saturday. The pitching of Lazar for the Blues was too much for the defeated nine, only three hits being allowed them. Wartz the sure-eyed third baseman received two of these while Phipher, short stop, was given one.

Martin on the mound for the St. Philip men was easy picking for the heavy hitting Blues, each member of the team marking one run except Andakin who tallied four and Beres marking up two. Swartz scored the losers one tally.

Start Gas Well In Millrun Field

MERCER, Pa., May 16.—A well of the Millrun Oil and Gas Company has been started on the farm of Harry Metzgar in Springfield township. The well is the fifth drilled by the company made up of the land owners of the territory under test since the organization of the company last fall.

The first three wells indicated a wonderful pressure of gas in the territory and the gas sold to United Natural Gas Company was piped to Mercer and added to the local gas supply.

It is said that the third well of the company brought in of recent date on the J. P. Hartt farm was a little light in comparison to the other wells.

The territory is being tested by these wells for the extent of the gas vein. The drilling has all been done by W. N. Hovis of Mercer, well known drilling contractor who is also a member of the company.

A team of women hockey players has sailed from England for a tour of Australia.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 16.—Speculative interest was directed to the railroad shares at the beginning of trading today. After an irregular opening, in which the major trend of prices was upward, the industrials sold off on profit-taking, with the usual buying demand being in evidence at a slightly lower range of prices.

The first reports from industrial centers in the new week were generally favorable. General Motors Corporation reported retail sales of 180,106 cars in April, against 146,275 in March and 136,643 in April, 1926, which was in keeping with its record-breaking pace. Call money renewals were posted at 4½ per cent.

The speculative "merge prospect" stocks in the railroad group made further advances in fairly active trading. The list included Western Maryland, Chicago Great Western, Katy, Kansas City Southern, Chesapeake & Ohio, Nickel Plate and Erie also received further attention from professionals, with Chesapeake & Ohio extending its "peak" to above 184.

Prophet Johanna's 113-Year-Old Mystery To Be Revealed to Waiting World at Last

One hundred and thirteen years ago Prophet Johanna Southcott, of Devonshire, sealed a chest, made the provision that it was not to be opened except in event of a national crisis, and then only in the presence of twenty-four bishops of the Established Church. Scientific Englishmen are going to open the box, regardless of her wishes. Pictures show the box and the amazing woman.

Hero of War Wins Struggle to Become Hero of Peace

Lieutenant Guy Envin was made blind and deaf by a German shell that tore thirty wounds in his body. The same courage that carried him into the war has carried him through Harvard, and now he plans to be an attorney as well as a teacher, lecturer and writer.

Loveless Wife

Years after she had married him, the former Mary Theresa Cornwallis-West confessed to Prince Henry von Pless that she had been forced into the ceremony, though she was in love with Lord Kenyon. That is the story of the wealthy German peer in an application to the Rota tribunal for annulment of the marriage.

Battles Robbers

While Patrolman Howard L. Weber of Buffalo, N. Y., was drinking a soda in the prescription room of a drug store he heard the command "hands up" issue from the front of the store. Weber, stepping into the doorway, beheld three masked bandits holding up a clerk. When the battle was ended one bandit lay dead, another was taken to a hospital with bullets in his head and chest and the third, who was near the door, made his escape. Although 10 bullets were aimed at the policeman he was uninjured.
